Summer On-Campus Workshops

Faith and Creative Writing

Rev. Travis Scholl
Presenter

June 27-29, 2009

Teaching the Faith: Catechesis in the Parish

Dr. Arthur "Andy" Bacon
Presenter

August 3-5, 2009

Concordia Seminary
St. Louis, Missouri

Faith and Creative Writing

This workshop will delve into various kinds of creative writing—poetry, storytelling (for “page” and “stage”) and creative nonfiction—and what it means to write in these genres as a person of faith. What role does faith play in the creative process? What makes a piece of writing religious? How is faith expressed through creativity? Questions like these will be explored through presentations, close readings, conversation and creative exercises. Although not required, participants are encouraged to bring their own work, as well as favorite works by others.

The Presenter

Rev. Travis Scholl

Rev. Scholl is managing editor of theological publications and Concordia Journal at Concordia Seminary, St. Louis.

Teaching the Faith: Catechesis in the Parish

This workshop will review the historical roots of confirmation and the identification of models of catechesis. The use of Luther’s Small Catechism to develop instructional plans for young learners will be the core of the presentations. Participants will develop a program for use in the parish.

The Presenter

Dr. Arthur “Andy” Bacon

Dr. Bacon is professor of practical theology at Concordia Seminary, St. Louis.

The Cost

The tuition is $125 per workshop and includes 1.5 CEUs. Meal information can be obtained from Concordia Seminary. No on-campus housing will be available.

The Date and Place

Both workshops begin on Monday (July 27 and August 3) at 1:00 p.m. and conclude on Wednesday (July 29 and August 5) at 12:00 p.m. Evenings are free.
