Concordia Seminary
St. Louis, Missouri

Christ, Redeemer of the Family: Ministering to the Hispanic/Latino in a North American Context

*Mark Kempff is instructor at the Center for Hispanic Studies at Concordia Seminary,
St. Louis.*

How does one minister to the U.S. Hispanic/Latino families in our midst? The workshop will provide participants with the biblical basis and sociocultural tools for analysis of case studies involving U.S. Hispanic/Latino families, seeking to develop strategies or models for outreach to Hispanic communities. (English only) $75. Deadline: June 1 (Mon. 1:00 p.m.–Weds. 12:00 p.m., evenings free)

The Johannine Epistles and the Apostle of Love

Dr. Louis Brighton is professor emeritus at Concordia Seminary, St. Louis.

The three epistles of the beloved John encourage all who follow Christ to be an icon, a picture of Christ, as we exhibit the sacrificial love of Christ to others. We do this by reflecting the light of Christ, by resisting false Christianity, by loving one another in Christ's love to us and by showing forth the confidence of standing before God's judgment because of our faith in Christ as our advocate before the heavenly Father. $125. Deadline: July 12 (Mon. 1:00 p.m.–Weds. 12:00 p.m., evenings free)

Faith and Creative Writing

*Rev. Travis Scholl is editor of Concordia
Journal, and Peter Mead is senior editor at Creative Communications*

This workshop will explore various kinds of creative writing—storytelling (for “page” and “stage”), creative nonfiction, and poetry—and what it means to write in these genres as a person of faith. What role does faith play in the creative process? How is religion expressed through creativity? What makes for effective communication of faith? Questions like these will be explored through presentations, discussion, and creative exercises. Due to participant feedback, an extra day has been added. Although not required, participants are encouraged to bring their own work, as well as favorite works by others. $125. Deadline: July 19 (9:00 a.m.–4:00 p.m. Mon-Weds)

Host: Concordia Seminary, 314-505-7486, ce@csl.edu. The tuition includes 1.5 CEUs. Meal tickets available from Continuing Ed. Limited on-campus housing available – contact 314-505-7486 for rates and availability.
