Residence Halls
CONCORDIA SEMINARY, ST. LOUIS
Residence Halls
Concordia Seminary has 90 student rooms in five halls for the housing of single students. These facilities have the ability to house approximately 140 persons in three types of accommodations: double occupancy room, private single occupancy room, and private double room. Renovations of all five residence halls were completed in fall 2012.

Meal Plan
Meal service is available in Wartburg Commons. Students living in dormitories are required to participate in the 10 meal plan:
- 6 Midday Meals
  - Lunch: Monday – Friday
  - Brunch: Saturday
- 4 Evening Meals
  - Dinner: Monday – Thursday
Meal service is not available during breaks; however, the newly renovated Benidt Center Community Kitchen is accessible to Seminary students at all times. In addition, there are a variety of food options within walking distance of the campus.

Residence Hall Counselors
To maintain the highest possible quality of residence hall life, returning students serving as residence hall counselors are responsible for encouraging a Christian lifestyle and arranging residence hall devotions. They are also responsible for the planning of residence hall events. Residential Services personnel will conduct visual inspections of the rooms occasionally to note their general condition and to check for health, fire, and safety hazards.

Prohibited in Residence Halls
- Candles and incense
- Cooking and cooking devices (except in lounges)
- Fireworks, propane, lighter fluid
- Under no circumstances are pets allowed in the residence halls

This list does not contain all items prohibited in the residence halls. Please see the Student Handbook for a complete list.

Provided Furniture
All rooms are furnished with a desk, chair, bookshelf, dresser or chest of drawers, wardrobe or closet, and bed with mattress. Students furnish their own pillows, linens, blankets and desk lamps. Students must leave all provided furniture in their rooms.
Concordia Seminary takes pride in the living accommodations it is able to offer to our on-campus residents. All the rooms come with air conditioning and high speed Internet. The lounges of the residence halls are equipped with televisions, basic cable and microwaves. Coin-operated laundry facilities can be found in most residence halls and in the basement of Loeber Hall. Commercial dry cleaning establishments are located near the campus.
