Concordia Seminary
Women’s Retreat
October 12-13, 2012
Camp Wartburg, Waterloo, IL
Do you long to be a Woman of Joy, regardless of your circumstances? Do you struggle to be a Woman of Humility, living in a world that places priority in pride and self-promotion? Do you desire to be a Woman of Confidence, the assurance that can come only from Christ? And do you wish to be a Woman of Contentment, fulfilled and satisfied in any and every situation? Join us for this close-up study of the book of Philippians, the New Testament letter of JOY! Prepare to be filled with God’s grace in Christ, encouraged in your faith walk, and blessed beyond measure.

A Woman of Joy, Deb Burma shares Christ’s love through the study of God’s Word in a creative and engaging style, speaking to women’s hearts and encouraging them in their everyday lives. Deb is a frequent guest speaker and retreat leader for women’s ministries. She is especially excited to return to Camp Wartburg for this Seminary Women’s Retreat! As a Sem Wife in 2000-2004, she was deeply impacted through the study of God’s Word at each retreat, and was influenced toward the leadership of women’s retreat ministry, as a result. Deb has directed women’s ministries, as well as family & children’s ministries, in multiple churches in the Midwest. She has authored women’s Bible studies, retreat kits, and devotion books, several of which have been published recently by CPH. Deb grew up on a ranch in western South Dakota. She is a graduate of the University of Texas at Dallas, and she has pursued dual careers as Stay-At-Home Mom and Ministry Leader, Writer, & Speaker ever since! Deb is humbly blessed with a beautiful family and currently resides in Columbus, Nebraska, with her husband, Cory, who serves as Associate Pastor at Peace Lutheran Church, and three terrific teenage children, Chris, Courtney, and Cameron.
