Presenters and Topics

Dr. Reed Lessing – Jonah: On a Tough Mission for a Tender God. Sharing our faith is hard. Just ask Jonah! A close look at this prophet’s ministry will open our minds and hearts to more fervent mission and ministry.

Christian Friends of New Americans – Cross-Cultural Outreach to New Americans in the St. Louis Area. Our mission is to be involved in relationships with new Americans with whom we can share the Gospel through caring words and actions.

Karen Davis – International Student Ministry – St. Louis Reaches Out! Approximately 8,500 international students and their families from more than 50 countries come to study in St. Louis. Although many of these people have little or no familiarity with Jesus or the Gospel message of the Bible, they are often open to learning about Christianity.

Rev. Dar Karsten – Being a Witness for Jesus Christ. Karsten will offer practical encouragement for living and speaking as a disciple and ambassador for Jesus Christ in this world.

Rev. Quentin Poulson – Net-Casting in Different Waters. Join Rev. Poulson in prayer, praise, and passion for the lost souls God wants to rescue by our faith and efforts in breaking down barriers to unifying all humanity, “that they may be one” under the banner of His glorious kingdom.

Rev. Ron Rall – Welcoming the Stranger – Building a Multi-Ethnic Church. The neighborhoods that surround our inner-city congregations are swarming with immigrants and refugees from all over the world. Many are not Christian, but a significant number are open to the Gospel message and eager to build relationships with Americans.

Dr. Leopoldo Sánchez – Five or More Things You Really Need to Know Before Reaching Out to Hispanics in the U.S. Hispanics/Latinos represent the fastest-growing and largest non-Anglo ethnic group in the nation. Reaching out to this diverse group of people becomes critical for the future health and vitality of the Lutheran Church in the U.S.
