FROM THE PRESIDENT
Thank you for looking into Concordia Seminary!

Concordia Seminary is a place of theological scholarship in the service of mission for our Lord Jesus Christ. 2011 marks the 400th anniversary of the King James Version, a lasting monument by scholars who were intent on a greater mission for the Gospel. The preface to the KJV says, “Translation it is that openeth the window, to let in the light.” Translation is not an artless activity, a mechanical setting of words from one language into another. Translation is a mission skill that seeks the best, the right and faithful words through various media to make God’s revelation understandable to every culture and tongue, our own included. Translation is a cross-cultural activity and that’s what Concordia scholarship intends to do.

This year Concordia Seminary also celebrates the 200th anniversary of the birth of C.F.W. Walther, first president of our Seminary and of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod. In his day Walther “translated” what it means to be church into the immigrants’ new American context. All the scholarly offerings and policies detailed in this academic calendar are intended to “translate” the Seminary motto, “Light from above,” into here-and-now Gospel for more and more hearts and homes. “Translation it is that openeth the window, to let in the light.”

President
GENERAL INFORMATION
Function and Purpose
Concordia Seminary’s major function is to prepare men for the holy ministry of Word and sacraments in The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod (LCMS). Students who complete the Master of Divinity degree (or an Alternate Route curriculum) and have been endorsed by the faculty for the pastoral office are awarded the theological diploma and thereby become eligible for a call into the holy ministry. Since the LCMS does not admit women to the pastoral office, none are enrolled in the Master of Divinity or the Doctor of Ministry programs. The Seminary also offers advanced degree programs to qualified students of theology and serves as a center for theological research, scholarship, and continuing education of the clergy. The aims of Concordia Seminary are:

I. To equip the student with the knowledge, attitudes, and skills requisite for the parish ministry in The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, leading him to:
A. Display the gifts with which the Holy Spirit has endowed him, by reverence for God, faithful use of Word and sacraments, and the diligent pursuit of opportunities for study and growth, for development of personal qualities and skills, and for increase in the grace to edify his fellow Christians, to serve people in their need, and to witness to all nations, races, and peoples as a person of good reputation;
B. Accept without reservation the Scriptures of the Old and the New Testaments as the written Word of God and the only rule and norm of faith and of practice and all the symbolical books of the evangelical Lutheran church contained in the Book of Concord as a true and unadulterated statement and exposition of the Word of God* The 2010 Handbook of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod (Constitution of the LCMS, Article II, Sections 1 and 2);
C. Manifest an appreciation and comprehensive understanding of the theology of the Bible and the skill to interpret the Holy Scriptures on the basis of their original languages and in accordance with sound hermeneutical principles;
D. Manifest an understanding and appreciation of the church’s formulation of scriptural doctrine in the light of its varying needs and the skill to present such doctrine clearly;
E. Manifest an understanding and appreciation of God’s guidance in the life of the church and the skill to investigate the church’s past and to interpret it to the present generation;
F. Manifest an understanding of the pastoral office as the ministry of proclaiming God’s Word to human need within a discipline of preaching, worship, teaching, and pastoral care and counseling for the edification of God’s people, enabling them to carry on the mission of the church in the world of diverse cultures and traditions;
G. Indicate a complete dedication to the holy ministry and the readiness to accept a call extended to him by the Board of Assignments (Handbook, Bylaw 2.8).

II. To provide instruction and experiences preparing for special competence demanded by particular aspects of the ministry, such as service in specialized fields and in diverse cultural contexts.

III. To offer to qualified clergymen, teachers, and lay people training in theology as a part of a program of continuing education.

IV. To give opportunity for advanced theological study, and to foster research.

V. To provide theological guidance and leadership to the professional servants of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod and its congregations through faculty publications, service on synodical boards and committees, programmatic participation in church conferences and conventions, and other such opportunities for service as befit the close relationship between church and Seminary.

To this end, it is the purpose of Concordia Seminary to provide an environment where the church can seek out and nurture the gifts of the Spirit which are requisite in servants of the Word who will edify the body of Christ.
Location
Concordia Seminary is located at 801 Seminary Place in Clayton, Missouri, in metropolitan St. Louis, and is readily accessible from Interstate 64 (U.S. 40) via the Clayton Road/Skinker Boulevard exit (#34B) from the east or the Bellevue Avenue exit (#33C) from the west.

History
Concordia Seminary was founded in 1839 in Perry County, Missouri, by a group of emigrants from Germany. In 1849, the preparatory division and the school of theology of the young institution were moved to St. Louis and relocated on a site at South Jefferson Avenue and Winnebago Street. The preparatory division was moved to Fort Wayne, Indiana, in 1861. In 1926, the campus was moved to its present 72-acre site in suburban Clayton. Concordia Seminary is owned and operated by the 2,300,000-member Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod. The Seminary is maintained by the church to prepare men for ordination as parish pastors, chaplains, and mission workers to help carry on the task of ministry in its districts in the United States, and in partner churches and missions in Canada, Europe, Asia, Central America, South America, Africa, and the Pacific Islands. Since its inception, Concordia Seminary in St. Louis has provided more than 12,000 professional workers in the church.

Campus
The present campus consists of the following facilities: The Chapel of St. Timothy and St. Titus; Pieper, Pritzlaff (administration), and Stoeckhardt (enrollment management); Wyneken Hall (classrooms, offices, and Werner Auditorium); Sieck Hall (classrooms and offices); Ludwig E. Fuerbringer Hall (library); Loeber Hall (advancement, guest housing, CPH bookstore, campus services, financial planning); the Johann Hinrich Benidt Seminary Center (Wartburg and Koburg Halls, kitchen, and adjacent facilities); the Eldon E. Pederson Fieldhouse; Brauer, Brohn, Buenger, Craemer, O. Fuerbringer, Graebner, Guenther, Mezger, and Schaller Halls (dormitories); Lange Hall (Welcome Center); Fritz Hall and Founders Way (married student apartments); Seminary Terrace (faculty housing); and maintenance shops. The training room is located in Pederson Fieldhouse.

CPH Seminary Bookstore
The bookstore, located on the lower level of Loeber Hall, serves as central supply for the campus. While its primary purpose is to provide textbooks and reference works, it also sells stationery and office supplies, cards, and other items. The bookstore is operated by Concordia Publishing House. It serves not only students, faculty, and staff on campus, but also pastors throughout the Synod.

*The 2010 Handbook of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod states with regard to ordination and installation: “The rites of ordination and commissioning and the rites of installation should be in accordance with forms and practices developed by the Synod for that purpose, and in all events the minister shall be solemnly pledged to the Scriptures as the inspired and inerrant Word of God and the Symbolical Books of the Lutheran Church as a true exposition of the Scriptures” (Bylaw 2.10.4).

MASTER OF DIVINITY PROGRAM

In keeping with the major function of Concordia Seminary to equip men for the holy ministry of Word and sacraments in The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, the Master of Divinity (M.Div.) degree is the normative route to certification for ordained ministry in congregations and other ministry settings.

ADMISSION
Eligibility
Admission to the M.Div. program ordinarily is contingent on the student’s membership in a congregation of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod or of a church body in fellowship with the Synod. An applicant is to have been involved actively as a communicant member in a Lutheran congregation for not less than two years prior to enrollment.

College Preparation
Applicants to the M.Div. program at Concordia Seminary ordinarily must possess a bachelor’s degree from an accredited college or university, with a cumulative grade point average of 2.5 or higher (on a 4.0 scale). The degree should represent a broad liberal arts background and must include courses in English composition and writing, and speech. It also should include courses in the humanities, psychology, social sciences, natural sciences, foreign languages, and religion.

A Seminary student benefits from being able to read theological literature in foreign languages, particularly German and Latin. If possible, both of these languages should be included in a prospective student’s baccalaureate program. The Seminary offers courses in these languages as resources and interests indicate.

Pre-Seminary Preparation
The Concordia University System conducts pre-seminary programs that offer sound preparation for theological study at the post-baccalaureate Seminary level. The pre-seminary curriculum “encompasses biblical knowledge, biblical language competency, and understanding of Lutheran doctrine; competency in communication skills in reading, writing, speaking, and listening; skills in critical thinking and philosophical inquiry; acquisition of a global perspective; ... understanding of and appreciation for the Lutheran ethos, identity, and ethic; and helping the student to perceive, proclaim, teach, and live out the centrality of the Gospel of Jesus Christ for the whole of life” (Concordia University System Pre-Seminary Mission Statement). Accordingly, Concordia Seminary strongly supports and encourages these programs as a preferred route to pre-seminary preparation.

Entry-Level Competencies
Biblical Languages, Bible Content, and Christian Doctrine
All students admitted to the M.Div. program must demonstrate entry-level competence in the following areas: Old Testament content, New Testament content, Christian doctrine, Biblical Greek, and Biblical Hebrew. Competence is demonstrated by passing either the Entry-Level Competence Examinations (ELCEs) in each area or the corresponding pre-seminary courses conducted by Concordia Seminary (see schedule below). A passing score of 70 percent is required on each of the ELCEs. The Office of Admissions and Ministerial Recruitment will provide information to all applicants regarding administration of the ELCEs.

NOTE: The Admissions Committee ordinarily will grant admission to the M.Div. program prior to the demonstration of competence in these five areas, with the condition that such admission is subject to the demonstration of competence in these five areas. Consequently, students who have not demonstrated competence in any of the five areas must register for the applicable pre-seminary remedial courses before they will be permitted to enroll in M.Div. courses.

The Seminary offers the pre-seminary remedial competence courses according to the following schedule:

Old Testament - Summer Quarter only
New Testament - Summer Quarter only
Christian Doctrine - Summer Quarter only
Elementary Greek - Summer and Fall only
Elementary Hebrew - Summer (full course), Fall (full course) and Winter/Spring (two-course sequence) Quarters only
Please note the following guidelines:

- One may begin taking the content ELCEs May 1 of the year prior to enrollment, and the language ELCEs August 1 in the year prior to enrollment.
- A student ordinarily will be afforded as many as three opportunities to pass each ELCE. After an unsuccessful attempt to pass an ELCE, an interval of 21 days must pass before another attempt to pass the same ELCE. This means that fewer attempts will be available to a student as the April 30 deadline approaches.
- A student who has passed the Old Testament, New Testament, and Christian Doctrine ELCEs by April 30 may register for one of the biblical language classes in the Summer Quarter; Greek is usually taken first.
- A student who has not passed the Old Testament, New Testament, and Christian Doctrine ELCEs by April 30 should register for any applicable pre-seminary remedial courses in the Summer Quarter.
- A student who is enrolled in one of the biblical languages may exceed 12 credit hours only with the permission of the director of academic programming.
- A student who is enrolled in one of the biblical languages may take M.Div. courses only with the permission of the director of academic programming.

Elementary Hebrew or Greek (full courses) may be repeated only once. If a student fails one of these courses the second time, the student will be dismissed for academic reasons from the M.Div. program. Such a student may apply for readmission as a Special Student to attempt the twice-failed language course a third time and will be authorized to take the course at the prevailing audit rate but will not be eligible for Seminary-administered financial aid. A student who successfully completes the applicable language course on the third attempt may apply for readmission to the M.Div. program.

Speech
All applicants must provide transcript evidence of satisfactory completion of a college course in the preparation and delivery of speeches.

Although St. Louis-area community colleges and universities offer such courses, trying to take such a course after arriving at the Seminary may impinge on one’s availability to take the proper Seminary course load. Therefore, applicants are strongly urged to take such a course at an institution in their home area.

Non-Degree Applicants
In a limited number of other cases, applicants without a bachelor’s degree may be admitted as non-degree students. The total number of non-degree students is restricted to a maximum of 10 percent of the total M.Div. student body; therefore, non-degree admissions are highly competitive. Admission decisions regarding non-degree applicants for each academic year are made in the preceding April. In addition to meeting all other admission requirements, non-degree students:

I. Must have reached age 35 by September 1 prior to their enrollment;
II. Must cite circumstances (age, family, finances, etc.) that indicate it is unrealistic to expect them to obtain a bachelor’s degree prior to their enrollment;
III. Must have received grades of “C” or better in courses that earned at least 60 semester hours of credit (90 quarter hours) at an accredited college or university, with the following minimum numbers of credits in specific areas:
   A. 12 in English and humanities (composition, communication, journalism, literature, art, drama, music, philosophy, foreign languages—also Greek and Hebrew);
   B. 2 in public speaking;
   C. 15 in social sciences (anthropology, economics, education, history, political science, psychology, sociology);
   D. 6 in science/mathematics (biology, chemistry, computer science, engineering, mathematics, physical science); and
   E. 25 in electives.

IV. Must have a cumulative grade point average of 2.5 or higher (on a 4.0 scale) for all courses taken, including any for which a grade lower than “C” was received.
Transfer Applicants
Students at accredited theological seminaries who wish to transfer to Concordia Seminary should ask the director of admissions and ministerial recruitment for a transcript evaluation. In consultation with the Admissions Committee, the academic advisor and registrar will determine which credits are transferable. Credits used for a degree at another school, credits for undergraduate-level courses, and credits for courses with a grade below “C” are not transferable. In addition to meeting requirements for the M.Div. degree, transfer students ordinarily shall be full-time students for two quarters immediately prior to vicarage and shall spend the entire academic year prior to graduation in full-time residency.

Application
Application forms are available from the Office of Admissions and Ministerial Recruitment. An application is not complete until it includes all of the following:

• Completed Application Form
• Application Fee of $50
• Official Transcripts from each college/university and seminary previously attended
• Official Report of Graduate Record Examination (GRE) Scores (see “Testing”)
• Letter of Recommendation from Home Pastor
• Interview Report from Home District
• Protect My Ministry background check
• Applicants who have graduated from, or attended, a synodical college or university within five years prior to enrollment at the Seminary also must provide a letter of recommendation from that institution’s president.

All admissions to the M.Div. program are offered subject to the completion of pre-seminary competencies and to the completion of all application requirements, e.g., official final transcripts from all post-secondary institutions previously attended. A student who continues to have missing items may be prevented from registering for courses until all requirements are complete. The application deadline for 2012-13 is March 31, 2012.

Testing
Applicants are required to take the Graduate Record Examination (General Test), except as follows:

I. GRE General Test scores are available that are less than five years old.
II. An applicant already has earned a master’s or doctoral degree.

Applicants who are able to use the Internet should contact www.gre.org for information concerning test dates and locations and to register for the General Test. Applicants who do not have Internet access should contact the Office of Admissions and Ministerial Recruitment to obtain a copy of the GRE Bulletin. International applicants are required also to present a score for the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) and may be required to present a score for the Test of Spoken English (TSE). Both tests are available via the Internet. Contact www.toefl.org for information concerning test dates and locations. Applicants who do not have Internet access should contact the Office of Admissions and Ministerial Recruitment to obtain a copy of the TOEFL Bulletin.

When registering for any of the above tests, please indicate that scores should be reported to the Office of Admissions and Ministerial Recruitment, Concordia Seminary, 801 Seminary Place, St. Louis, Missouri 63105. Concordia Seminary’s institution number is 6115.

ADMISSIONS STANDARDS AND ADMISSIONS DECISIONS
Admissions decisions are based on multiple criteria; each applicant’s overall record is examined in detail. Academic criteria include an ordinary minimum undergraduate GPA of 2.5 (on a 4.0 scale), and an ordinary minimum GRE Verbal raw score of 400. An applicant will not be declined solely on the basis of a non-qualifying GPA or GRE score. In the case of international applicants, an ordinary minimum TOEFL raw score of 200 (computer-based test) is required, with an ordinary minimum raw score of 23 on the Structure/Writing portion of the test. Again, however, an applicant will not be declined solely on the basis of one non-qualifying score or measure.
Entry-level competencies are admissions standards. Applicants are strongly encouraged to complete as many as they are able before their application goes to the Admissions Committee. Demonstration of competence in one or more of the areas of entry-level competence enhances the application not only by the demonstration of competence as such, but also by emphasizing the applicant’s interest in and commitment to ministerial formation at Concordia Seminary.

Additional criteria include the results of the applicant’s background check; recommendation from the applicant’s pastor and interview report from the synodical district in which the applicant resides. The care and completeness with which an applicant prepares the application and responds to its questions also are factors—sloppily prepared applications, including incomplete responses, suggest indifference.

The districts of the Synod have begun to apply increasing scrutiny to the education and other debt balances of pastor and deaconess candidates from the Synod’s seminaries; consequently, it has become necessary for Concordia Seminary to consider more closely the debt load of its applicants, in order to protect its students from the predicament of beginning their ministries with unmanageable debt.

Most favorable admissions decisions are offered “subject to” the presentation of any missing items from the application file, including final transcripts for students who are completing their undergraduate degrees while they apply to Concordia Seminary. Any such items must be completed in accordance with announced deadlines, or the offer of admission may be withdrawn.

Intention to Enroll
An applicant expresses his intention to enroll by submitting a $100 tuition deposit to be received by the Admissions Office no later than 30 days from the date of the applicant’s acceptance letter. Failure to submit the tuition deposit within 30 days of the date of the applicant’s acceptance letter will void the Seminary’s offer of admission, necessitating readmission prior to enrollment. This deposit is refundable if the student submits written notice on or before July 15 indicating that he desires the Seminary to withdraw his admission.

CURRICULUM AND ACADEMIC ADVISING
The M.Div. curriculum of Concordia Seminary is under continuous review in order that, with suitable revisions, it can prepare men more thoroughly to serve the church of today. The structure of the curriculum is depicted in the listing that follows this section.

The M.Div. curriculum as such is designed so that it ordinarily can be completed in four years (three years of academic residence, one year of vicarage). If a student has not demonstrated entry-level competence in one or more of the areas listed under “ADMISSION—Entry-Level Competencies” (page 14), enrolling in the applicable Seminary courses to acquire these competencies can add as much as one additional year of academic residence prior to the vicarage year (NOTE: Competency in Bible content and Christian doctrine must be demonstrated before enrolling in any other courses).

To assist students in understanding the curriculum and their own progress through it, the academic advisor for Sem I students meets with all first-year M.Div. students in the Fall Quarter. The director of academic programming and the registrar are also available for consultation in the first year and in each subsequent year of a student’s academic residency.

CURRICULAR PRACTICAL TRAINING
Curricular practical training functions to provide each student with the opportunity to observe and practice skills of the pastoral ministry firsthand. To qualify, the experience must be church work or work closely related to the development of the skills of the pastoral ministry; it must be supervised by competent professional persons; and it must be evaluated by both the student and the supervisor for the sake of the student’s insight and growth in all areas of personal and professional development. Each student at the Seminary must participate in and successfully complete nine quarters of resident field education and a year of vicarage as requirements for the M.Div. degree and the theological diploma.

Resident Field Education
The resident field education program consists of: (1) pre-vicarage and post-vicarage congregational field education, (2) institutional field education, (3) cross-cultural field education, and (4) course-related work.

Congregational field education begins with assignment by the director of resident field education to a congregation in the St. Louis area. The student is placed under the supervision of the pastor of that particular congregation. The program is designed to give the student experience with the role and functions of the pastor of a congregation.

During his first year of studies, the student completes the institutional and cross-cultural modules of resident field education, being assigned to a specific module for a quarter. Each module requires approximately half of the student’s field education time. The student will maintain as much Sunday contact as possible with his field education congregation.

Resident field education normally should involve a maximum of eight hours per week for first-year students and 10 hours per week for second-year and post-vicarage students. Participation is limited to Sunday morning and an average of one other time period per week. Orientation seminars for the various modules are conducted at the beginning of the academic year. Time spent in orientation counts toward meeting resident field education time requirements. Field education also is correlated with courses such as P-101 Pastoral Ministry, P-140 Worship, and P-130 Homiletics I.

A student may request assignment to full-time work in a congregation, institution, or camp for eight to 12 weeks during the summer under a qualified supervisor. Various sponsoring agencies submit placement opportunities through the district presidents of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod. A student who applies is assigned to such a placement, if available, by the director of resident field education. If acceptable comprehensive reports have been submitted by the student and the supervisor, the student may request to be excused from one of the required quarters of his pre-vicarage congregational resident field education program.

Vicarage

A vicarage “is required of all Seminary students before graduation, ordinarily in the second year before graduation” (2004 Handbook of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, Bylaw 2.8.1 d).

The vicarage consists of one year (12 months) of in-service education, normally in a parish situation. To begin vicarage, a student must have taken all the courses that are specific pre-vicarage requirements (see below). A student may begin vicarage with no fewer than 65 credits and no more than 93 credits. Most students have about 78 credits when they go on vicarage. A minimum cumulative curriculum grade point average of 2.35 is required to receive a vicarage assignment. Any student who seeks to go beyond 93 credits or to serve a deferred vicarage (completing all academic course work requirements before vicarage) should consult with the director of vicarage to discuss requirements for such exceptions. Vicars are full-time students at Concordia Seminary during the course of the vicarage. Periodic reports are made by the student and the supervising pastor to the director of vicarage. A total of 18 credit hours is granted to the student upon successful completion of the vicarage.

S100 S115 S116 H100 S124 S125 P101 P120 P130 P131 P140

three of the following, with at least one in each Testament:

EO105 EO106 EO107 EN105 EN106 EN107

Clinical Pastoral Education

Clinical pastoral education (CPE) is available on a limited basis for degree credit in the M.Div. program. CPE is conducted under the direction of a supervisor certified by the Association for Clinical Pastoral Education and the Seminary’s CPE advisor.

Application for CPE is made through the registrar, who determines the academic eligibility of the applicant. Students are academically eligible after completing all of the courses that are prerequisites for vicarage and accumulating a minimum of 65 credit hours in the M.Div. program with a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 or higher. After a student’s academic eligibility has been established, the application must be approved by the Department of Practical Theology.

Although as many as 12 hours of transcript credit may be granted for CPE, no more than six credit hours are applicable to the M.Div. degree.

Missionary Formation Concentration

The Missionary Formation Concentration is a mission-related concentration preparing students for service in church planting and cross cultural ministries. Students apply by taking a series of assessment tests and interviews, identifying them as potential candidates for these special ministries.

The Missionary Formation Concentration consists of a series of courses designed to prepare students for their calling in mission, including 1) a year-long mission and ministry seminar (P462), which includes onsite visits to mission and church planting locations giving students exposure to the praxis of church planting and mission work; 2) a two week intensive course built around an urban immersion trip called Ministry in Urban Contexts (P476), where students study the unique challenges and opportunities of urban ministry; 3) Missionary Anthropology (P471), which examines various cultures and worldviews, and their effects on communicating the Gospel; 4) History of Missions (H455), which studies the era of the Christian Church’s expansion, particularly in modern times; 5) along with a choice of two from Congregational Dynamics (P469), Christian Witness in U.S. Cultures (S434), and Urban Ministry (P453). These courses are available as electives within the general curriculum, and M.Div. students outside the program may participate in these courses as space allows.
Students specifically interested in church planting are also asked to participate in a Church Planters Assessment jointly organized by Concordia Seminary and the Center for U.S. Missions. The assessment results are used to individualize the second and third year of a student's residential field education, to provide students with exposure to a variety of church planting contexts. Ideally, the concentration would provide a student with experience in six different church planting contexts, and one more traditional congregational setting.

INTERNATIONAL STUDY PROGRAMS
International Seminary Exchange Programs (England, Germany, Brazil, Korea)
Concordia Seminary has established protocols with several partnering seminaries for overseas exchange programs for M.Div. students. These programs are primarily for enrichment; however, most participants do earn some M.Div. credits by transfer. M.Div. students are eligible who ordinarily have achieved second-year (34 M.Div. credit hours completed) classification, with a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or higher. The duration of these exchanges is one academic year (except the Korea site, which is one academic quarter). Interested students should contact the coordinator for international seminary exchange programs or the registrar for more information.

Jerusalem University College
Concordia Seminary is an Associate School in cooperation with Jerusalem University College (JUC; formerly the Institute of Holy Land Studies), which offers unique opportunities for the study of archaeology through on-site courses and field expeditions in the Holy Land. Up to six credit hours may be earned at JUC and applied to the M.Div. program. Additional information may be obtained from the department of exegetical theology (regarding courses), the director of financial aid (regarding financial aid), and the registrar (regarding transfer of credits).

DUAL DEGREE PROGRAMS
For information regarding Dual Degree programs with Fontbonne University or Saint Louis University, please contact the Registrar's office.

STUDENT STANDING AND CLASSIFICATION
Standing
Completion of the M.Div. curriculum within four years requires that a student assume a course load averaging just over 13 credit hours per quarter. A normal course load is four to five courses per quarter.

Students enrolled in the M.Div. program are classified as full-time students if they are registered for at least nine credit hours (not applicable to summer quarter). Students must be enrolled in at least 4.5 credit hours in order to keep any education loans in deferment. Loads of less than nine hours are not encouraged and may be assumed only after consultation with the Director of Academic Programming and Assessment.

Students may not register for more than 16 credit hours (12 hours in the Summer Quarter) without permission of the faculty. A student who wishes to register for an overload must apply to the faculty, through the Director of Academic Programming and Assessment, and must carry a minimum curriculum GPA of 3.0.

Classification
Students in the M.Div. program are classified each quarter by the number of curriculum hours earned toward the degree (the 18 hours of vicarage credit are not counted in the calculations below):

- 0-33 hours – I-Year
- 34-77 hours – II-Year
- 78+ hours – IV-Year

ACADEMIC STANDARDS, DISMISSAL, WITHDRAWAL
Students are expected to maintain the highest level of scholarship of which they are capable. Concordia Seminary assumes that students are mature enough to determine, with the assistance of available counsel, when activities other than class work are beneficial and when they are detrimental to satisfactory progress. Such activities include participation in on- or off-campus organizations, and employment.

Satisfactory Progress
A minimum curriculum grade point average (curriculum GPA) of 2.35 is required for satisfactory progress toward the M.Div degree, where satisfactory progress includes, first, eligibility to receive a vicarage assignment, later, eligibility for certification and placement (first call) and, finally, eligibility to receive the theological diploma and the M.Div. degree.

Academic Probation
A student whose curriculum GPA falls below 2.35 or whose grade point average in any quarter (term curriculum GPA) falls below 2.00 will be placed on academic probation. The probationary status serves as a warning that the student is not making satisfactory progress and, unless improvement is achieved, will be subject to dismissal from the Seminary. The director of the M.Div. program and/or the dean of ministerial formation will meet with the student to identify factors which may have contributed to the unsatisfactory academic performance and to help establish strategies for improvement. Ordinarily, a student who continues on academic probation for two consecutive quarters will be dismissed because of academic deficiency.

Withdrawal
A student who wishes to withdraw from the M.Div. program must consult the director of the M.Div. program before withdrawing (the director may direct the student to meet also with the dean of ministerial formation). To withdraw as a student in good standing, the student must have a satisfactory record of conduct and must have satisfied all obligations to the school (e.g., return all check-out books to the library, clear accounts with finance and financial aid).

Dismissal
Concordia Seminary retains the authority to dismiss students, but exercises this authority with considerable restraint.

GRANTING OF DEGREE
The M.Div. degree will be granted upon completion of all academic and professional training requirements.

CERTIFICATION AND PLACEMENT
Faculty Certification
A student must spend at least one full year at a synodical seminary prior to his placement and serve a vicarage assigned by the Board of Assignments of the Synod. Also, in order for a student to be declared qualified for a first call and recommended by the faculty for the Office of the Public Ministry, the faculty must be satisfied that the student will meet all personal, professional, and theological requirements of the office.

After the Division of Ministerial Formation has expressed satisfaction that the student is ready for the certification process, the student enters the certification process. The Director of Certification recommends certification to the plenary faculty; students are normally approved by vote of the faculty in plenary session.

Assignment
A candidate declared qualified for a first call shall have indicated complete dedication to the ministry and evidenced a readiness for service in the church. He shall receive his first call through an assignment by the Council of Presidents acting as the Board of Assignments of the Synod.
ALTERNATE ROUTES TO PASTORAL MINISTRY

When a man who aspires to the pastoral office demonstrates circumstances exceptional enough to warrant that he not be required to complete the normative, first professional degree (M.Div.) program in order to be certified for the office, he may seek admission to the Seminary in one of the following alternate routes to pastoral ministry.

Like the M.Div. program, these alternate routes seek to further the spiritual, academic, and personal development of men to equip them for the holy ministry of Word and Sacraments in The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod. Unlike the M.Div. program, these alternate routes do not lead to either an academic or a professional degree. Instead, the student who successfully finishes these programs receives a certificate indicating that a prescribed course of studies has been completed and a theological diploma that certifies eligibility for ordination.

CERTIFICATE PROGRAM (Residential)
The Certificate program (residential) is the alternate route most closely parallel to the M.Div. Students in this program study alongside those in the M.Div. program, including the study of the New Testament on the basis of its original language, Greek. The key differences from the M.Div. program are a reduced number of courses and Old Testament studies carried out on the basis of the English language.

Although the Certificate program itself does not lead to a degree, some students in this program also qualify for admission to the Master of Arts program in the Graduate School.

ADMISSION Eligibility
Admission to the Certificate program is contingent on the applicant’s membership in a congregation of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod. Each applicant must meet the criteria of one of the following categories:

I. Men who are graduates of a synodical college/university, whose names appear on the synodical roster of commissioned ministers, and who have accumulated at least eight years of successful experience as commissioned ministers of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod.

II. Men who ordinarily are at least 35 years of age at the time of application, who ordinarily have accumulated at least 10 years of significant experience related directly to Word and Sacrament ministry within The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod (elder, lector, evangelism caller, Bible class teacher, etc.), and who ordinarily have completed successfully at least 60 semester hours of college-level course work.

College Preparation
Applicants to the Certificate program at Concordia Seminary ordinarily must possess a bachelor’s degree from an accredited college or university, with a cumulative grade point average of 2.5 or higher (on a 4.0 scale). The degree should represent a broad liberal arts background and must include courses in English composition and writing, and speech. It also should include courses in the humanities, psychology, social sciences, natural sciences, foreign languages (preferably German and/or Latin), and religion.

Entry-Level Competencies
Biblical Languages, Bible Content, and Christian Doctrine
All students admitted to the Certificate program must demonstrate entry-level competence in the following areas: Old Testament content, New Testament content, Christian doctrine, and Biblical Greek. Competence is demonstrated by passing either the applicable Entry-Level Competence Examinations (ELCEs) in each area or the corresponding pre-seminary courses conducted by Concordia Seminary (see schedule below). A passing score of 70 percent is required on each of the ELCEs. The Office of Admissions and Ministerial Recruitment will provide information to all applicants regarding administration of the ELCEs.

NOTE: The Admissions Committee ordinarily will grant admission to the Certificate program prior to the demonstration of competence in these four areas, with the condition that such admission is subject to the demonstration of competence in these four areas. Consequently, students who have not demonstrated competence in any of the four areas must register for the applicable pre-seminary courses before they will be permitted to enroll in Certificate courses.

The Seminary offers the pre-seminary competence courses according to the following schedule:

- Old Testament - Summer Quarter only
- New Testament - Summer Quarter only
- Christian Doctrine - Summer Quarter only
- Elementary Greek - Summer and Fall Quarters only

Please note the following guidelines:
One may begin taking the content ELCEs May 1 of the year prior to enrollment, and the language ELCEs August 1 in the year prior to enrollment.

A student ordinarily will be afforded as many as three opportunities to pass each ELCE. After an unsuccessful attempt to pass an ELCE, an interval of 21 days must pass before another attempt to pass the same ELCE. This means that fewer attempts will be available to a student as the April 30 deadline approaches. A student who has passed the Old Testament, New Testament, and Christian Doctrine ELCEs by April 30 may register for one of the biblical language classes in the Summer Quarter; Greek is usually taken first.

A student who has not passed the Old Testament, New Testament, and Christian Doctrine ELCEs by April 30 should register for any applicable pre-seminary remedial courses in the Summer Quarter.

A student who is enrolled in Elementary Greek may exceed 12 credit hours only with the permission of the director of academic programming.

A student who is enrolled in Elementary Greek may take Certificate courses only with the permission of the director of academic programming.

Elementary Greek (full course) may be repeated only once. If a student fails this course the second time, the student will be dismissed for academic reasons from the certificate program. Such a student may apply for readmission as a Special Student to attempt the course a third time and will be authorized to take the course at the prevailing audit rate but will not be eligible for Seminary-administered financial aid. A student who successfully completes the course on the third attempt may apply for readmission to the certificate program.

Speech
All applicants must provide transcript evidence of satisfactory completion of a college course in the preparation and delivery of speeches. Although St. Louis-area community colleges and universities offer such courses, trying to take such a course after arriving at the Seminary may impinge on one's availability to take the proper Seminary course load. Therefore, applicants are strongly urged to take such a course at an institution in their home area.

Non-Degree Applicants
In a limited number of other cases, applicants without a bachelor’s degree may be admitted as non-degree students. The total number of non-degree students is restricted to a maximum of 10 percent of the total Certificate student body; therefore, non-degree admissions are highly competitive. Admission decisions regarding non-degree applicants for each academic year are made in the preceding April. In addition to meeting all other admission requirements, non-degree students:

I. Must have reached age 35 by September 1, prior to their enrollment;
II. Must cite circumstances (age, family, finances, etc.) that indicate it is unrealistic to expect them to obtain a bachelor’s degree prior to their enrollment;
III. Must have received grades of “C” or better in courses that earned at least 60 semester hours of credit (90 quarter hours) at an accredited college or university, with the following minimum numbers of credits in specific areas:
   A. 12 in English and humanities (composition, communication, journalism, literature, art, drama, music, philosophy, foreign languages—also Greek);
   B. 2 in public speaking;
   C. 15 in social sciences (anthropology, economics, education, history, political science, psychology, sociology);
D. 6 in science/mathematics (biology, chemistry, computer science, engineering, mathematics, physical science); and
E. 25 in electives.
IV. Must have a cumulative grade point average of 2.5 or higher (on a 4.0 scale) for all courses taken, including any for which a grade lower than “C” was received.

Application
Application forms are available from the Office of Admissions and Ministerial Recruitment. An application is not complete until it includes all of the following:
• Completed Application Form
• Application Fee of $50
• Official Transcripts from each college/university and seminary previously attended
• Letter of Recommendation from Home Pastor
• Letter of Recommendation from District President
• Letter(s) of Recommendation from presidents of synodical colleges/universities attended
• Interview Report from Home District
• Protect My Ministry background check

All admissions to the Certificate program are offered subject to the completion of pre-seminary competencies and to the completion of all application requirements, e.g., official final transcripts from all post-secondary institutions previously attended. A student who continues to have missing items may be prevented from registering for courses until all requirements are complete. The application deadline for 2012-13 is March 31, 2012.

ADMISSIONS STANDARDS AND ADMISSIONS DECISIONS
Admissions decisions are based on multiple criteria; each applicant’s overall record is examined in detail.

Academic criteria include an ordinary minimum undergraduate GPA of 2.5 (on a 4.0 scale), and an ordinary minimum GRE Verbal raw score of 400. An applicant will not be declined solely on the basis of a non-qualifying GPA or GRE score. In the case of international applicants, an ordinary minimum TOEFL raw score of 200 (computer-based test) is required, with an ordinary minimum raw score of 23 on the Structure/Writing portion of the test. Again, however, an applicant will not be declined solely on the basis of one non-qualifying score or measure.

Entry-level competencies are admissions standards. Applicants are strongly encouraged to complete as many as they are able before their application goes to the Admissions Committee. Demonstration of competence in one or more of the areas of entry-level competence enhances the application not only by the demonstration of competence as such, but also by emphasizing the applicant’s interest in and commitment to ministerial formation at Concordia Seminary.

Additional criteria include the results of the applicant’s background check; recommendation from the applicant’s pastor and interview report from the synodical district in which the applicant resides. The care and completeness with which an applicant prepares the application and responds to its questions also are factors—sloppily prepared applications, including incomplete responses, suggest indifference.

The districts of the Synod have begun to apply increasing scrutiny to the education and other debt balances of pastor and deaconess candidates from the Synod’s seminaries; consequently, it has become necessary for Concordia Seminary to consider more closely the debt load of its applicants, in order to protect its students from the predicament of beginning their ministries with unmanageable debt.

Most favorable admissions decisions are offered “subject to” the presentation of any missing items from the application file, including final transcripts for students who are completing their undergraduate degrees while they apply to Concordia Seminary. Any such items must be completed in accordance with announced deadlines, or the offer of admission may be withdrawn.
Intention to Enroll
An applicant expresses his intention to enroll by submitting a $100 tuition deposit to be received by the Admissions Office no later than 30 days from the date of the applicant’s acceptance letter. Failure to submit the tuition deposit within 30 days of the date of the applicant’s acceptance letter will void the Seminary’s offer of admission, necessitating readmission prior to enrollment. This deposit is refundable if the student submits written notice on or before July 15 indicating that he desires the Seminary to withdraw his admission.

CURRICULUM AND ACADEMIC ADVISING
The curriculum for commissioned ministers requires 103 quarter hours of credit (including vicarage credit), distributed as outlined in Figure 3 (excluding the items in brackets); the curriculum for laymen over 35 requires 112 quarter hours of credit (including vicarage credit), distributed as outlined above (including the items in brackets).

To assist students in understanding the curriculum and their own progress through it, and because of the time constraints of the program, the registrar or the director of academic programming meets with each Certificate program student in advance of registration in order to select courses for the coming term.

VICARAGE 18 hours

CURRICULAR PRACTICAL TRAINING
Certificate program students participate in resident field education (see page 18) and also serve a vicarage (see page 19). Ordinarily, a Certificate program student’s vicarage follows the completion of the student’s resident course work, and the place where he serves his vicarage also ordinarily will become the place of his first ordained ministry.

Resident Field Education
The resident field education program consists of: (1) pre-vicarage, (2) institutional field education, (3) cross-cultural field education, and (4) course-related work.

Congregational field education begins with assignment by the director of resident field education to a congregation in the St. Louis area. The student is placed under the supervision of the pastor of that particular congregation. The program is designed to give the student experience with the role and functions of the pastor of a congregation.

During his first year of studies, the student completes the institutional and cross-cultural modules of resident field education, being assigned to a specific module for a quarter. Each module requires approximately half of the student’s field education time. The student will maintain as much Sunday contact as possible with his field education congregation. Resident field education normally should involve a maximum of eight hours per week for first-year students and 10 hours per week for second-year students. Participation is limited to Sunday morning and an average of one other time period per week.

Orientation seminars for the various modules are conducted at the beginning of the academic year. Time spent in orientation counts toward meeting resident field education time requirements. Field education also is correlated with courses such as P101 Pastoral Ministry, P140 Worship, and P130 Homiletics I.

A student may request assignment to full-time work in a congregation, institution, or camp for eight to 12 weeks during the summer under a qualified supervisor. Various sponsoring agencies submit placement opportunities through the district presidents of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod. A student who applies is assigned to such a placement, if available, by the director of resident field education. If acceptable comprehensive reports have been submitted by the student and the supervisor, the student may request to be excused from one of the required quarters of his pre-vicarage congregational resident field education program.

Alternate Route Vicarage
Satisfactory completion of the Certificate Program (Residential) also requires completion of a 12-month vicarage, which follows the academic residency. A minimum cumulative curriculum grade point average (GPA) of 2.35 is required to receive a vicarage assignment.

Vicars are full-time students of Concordia Seminary during the course of the vicarage. Periodic reports are made by the student/vicar and the supervising pastor to the director of vicarage. A total of 18 credit hours is granted to the student upon successful completion of the vicarage.

ACADEMIC STANDARDS, DISMISSAL, WITHDRAWAL
A minimum cumulative curriculum grade point average of 2.0 is required for the academic certificate, but a minimum of 2.35 is required for certification and conferral of the theological diploma. The same standards and policies apply to students in the Certificate program as to M.Div. students (see page 20).

Faculty Certification
A student must spend at least one full year at a synodical seminary prior to his placement and serve a vicarage assigned by the Board of Assignments of the Synod. Also, in order for a student to be declared qualified for a first call and recommended by the faculty for the Office of the Public Ministry, the faculty must be satisfied that the student will meet all personal, professional, and theological requirements of the office.

After the Division of Ministerial Formation has expressed satisfaction that the student is ready for the certification process, the student enters the certification process. The Director of Certification recommends certification to the plenary faculty; all students are approved by vote of the faculty in plenary session.

Assignment
A candidate declared qualified for a first call shall have indicated complete dedication to the ministry and evidenced a readiness for service in the church. He shall receive his first call through an assignment by the Council of Presidents acting as the Board of Assignments of the Synod.
CENTER FOR HISPANIC STUDIES (CHS)
Because of the growing need for Lutheran theological education among Hispanics in the United States, the Center for Hispanic Studies (CHS)—formerly known as the Hispanic Institute of Theology—was established in 1987. Since Latinos currently comprise the fastest-growing ethnic group in the nation, the main mission of CHS, now more than ever, is to form future Hispanic lay leaders, commissioned deaconesses and ordained ministers for The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod. Instruction is carried out in Spanish and considers the rich diversity of Hispanic cultural contexts in theological and pastoral reflection. The Center delivers instruction through theological education by extension, part-time residential opportunities, and computer-based systems.

PROGRAMS OF STUDY
I. ENTRANCE (CONGREGATIONAL) LEVEL
This level currently includes 10 courses whose overall objective is to provide laypeople in the local Hispanic congregation with a foundational knowledge of Scripture and of Lutheran theology and practice. Each course contains lessons that can be delivered by DVD or Internet, and includes accompanying manuals and workbooks. Although each lesson is taught in Spanish, certain courses have English subtitles. In such courses, the student is able to choose a study manual in either Spanish or English. The Entrance Level helps students acquire good and fruitful study habits, which often foster interest in further studies at the Seminary Level. Students who finish the 10 courses receive a certificate that will enable them, if so desired, to be considered and recognized as layworkers in the church.

Entrance Level Requirements
1. Complete an application to the Entrance Level.
2. Be a member of the Lutheran Church for at least one year.
3. Use primarily Spanish in daily life, or work and live among Spanish-speaking peoples.
4. Be an active member in the local congregation.
5. Present a letter of recommendation from the pastor of the congregation.
6. Completion of high school or its equivalent, and preferably some university studies.
7. Read, speak, and write Spanish.

CENTRO DE ESTUDIOS HISPANOS (CEH)
Anteriormente conocido como el Instituto Hispano de Teología, el Centro de Estudios Hispanos (CEH) del Seminario Concordia se estableció en 1987 para dar respuesta a la gran necesidad de educación teológica luterana entre el pueblo hispano. Ya que hoy en día la población latina es la más creciente en toda la nación, la misión primordial del CEH es, ahora más que nunca, la de formar a los futuros obres legos, diaconisas, y ministros ordenados de La Iglesia Luterana—Sinodo de Missouri. La enseñanza se lleva a cabo en español y considera la diversidad del contexto cultural hispano en su reflexión teológica y pastoral. El Centro enseña cursos utilizando la educación teológica por extensión, a distancia y residencial.

Programas de estudios
I. NIVEL DE ENTRADA (CONGREGACIONAL)
Los cursos de este nivel tienen el propósito de proveer al estudiante los fundamentos bíblicos de la fe cristiana y las herramientas para el entendimiento de la centralidad del evangelio en la teología y práctica de la iglesia luterana. Cada curso contiene lecciones disponibles en DVD o por Internet, además de un manual de estudio y libros de texto correspondientes. Cada lección se imparte en español. Ciertos cursos incluyen subtítulos en inglés. En tales casos, el estudiante puede escoger su manual de estudios en español o inglés. Se espera que el estudiante adquiera buenos y fructíferos hábitos de estudio que lo motiven a continuar en el Nivel Seminario. Los estudiantes que terminen los 10 cursos recibirán un certificado que los habilitará, si desean, para ser considerados como trabajadores legos de la iglesia.

Requisitos para el Nivel de Entrada
1. Llenar la solicitud del Nivel de Entrada.
2. Ser miembro de la Iglesia Luterana por lo menos un año.
3. Uso primordial del español en la vida diaria, la iglesia y la comunidad en la que vive.
4. Ser miembro activo de la congregación local.
5. Presentar una carta de recomendación del pastor de su congregación.
6. Finalización de estudios secundarios o su equivalente, y si es posible de universidad.
7. Leer, hablar y escribir el español.
Entrance Level Curriculum
1. EXE101, People and Events of the Old Testament
2. EXE102, People and Events of the New Testament
3. EXE103, Jesus of Nazareth, My Lord (Life of Christ)
4. EXE200, Hermeneutics
5. SYS101, We Witness to Our Faith (Christian Doctrine)
6. HIS101, People and Events of Christian History
7. HIS120, Luther and the Reformation
8. PRA101, The Bible and the Hispanic Family
9. PRA200, Music and Worship
10. PRA220, Methods of Education

II. SEMINARY LEVEL
Those who satisfactorily complete the Entrance Level (or its equivalent) may submit their application for admission to the Seminary Level, which is a Spanish-language part-time residential pastoral formation program of Concordia Seminary. Arrangements are made for the students to come to the Seminary campus or to approved regional centers for intensive sessions under faculty who have experience working with Hispanic/Latino churches and communities. The student must complete 18 courses, as well as a concurrent vicarage that begins in the second year of formal studies. The program is completed approximately in three years using a diverse system of instruction and methodologies.

Admission Requirements of the Seminary Level
1. Satisfactory completion of the Entrance Level program of the Center or its equivalent.
2. Completion of an application for admission to the Seminary Level program of the Center for Hispanic Studies.
3. Satisfactory interview report from district.
4. Submission of a letter of recommendation from the student’s pastor.
5. Submission of a letter of recommendation from the District President.
6. Background check.
7. Application fee of $50

Cursos para el Nivel de Entrada
1. EXE101, Personajes y Eventos del Antiguo Testamento
2. EXE102, Personajes y Eventos del Nuevo Testamento
3. EXE103, Jesús de Nazaret, mi Señor (Vida de Cristo)
4. EXE200, Hermenéutica
5. SYS101, El Testimonio de la Fe (Doctrina Cristiana)
6. HIS101, Personajes y Eventos de la Historia Cristiana
7. HIS120, Lutero y la Reforma de la Iglesia
8. PRA101, La Biblia y la Familia Hispana
9. PRA200, Adoración y Canto
10. PRA220, Métodos de Educación

II. NIVEL SEMINARIO
Los egresados del Nivel de Entrada (o su equivalente) podrán presentar su solicitud de ingreso al nivel Seminario. Este es un programa intensivo de formación pastoral que se lleva a cabo a tiempo parcial en el campus o en centros de extensión bajo la tutela de profesores con amplia experiencia en Iglesias y comunidades hispanas. El estudiante deberá completar 18 cursos y cumplir con un periodo de vicariato simultáneo que comenzará el segundo año de estudios formales. El programa se completa aproximadamente en 3 años mediante un sistema variado de instrucción y metodologías.

Requisitos para la Inscripción en el Nivel Seminario
1. Cumplimiento satisfactorio del Nivel de Entrada del Centro o su equivalente.
2. Llenar la solicitud para admisión al Nivel Seminario del Centro de Estudios Hispanos.
3. Cumplimiento satisfactorio de una entrevista del estudiante presidente de su distrito o su representante.
4. Presentar una carta de recomendación del pastor del estudiante.
5. Presentar una carta de recomendación del presidente de su distrito.
6. Verificación de antecedentes.
7. Cuota de solicitud de $50
8. Credenciales de escuela secundaria/ university.

Vicariato
El requisito del vicariato se lleva a cabo durante el tiempo de estudios en el Nivel Seminario. Durante el primer año de estudios, el nombre del estudiante se presentará ante el Concilio de Presidentes de La Iglesia Luterana—Sínodo de Missouri para que éste...
Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod in order to receive a vicarage assignment. The concurrent vicarage begins during the second year of studies and continues through the remainder of a student’s coursework.

Certification and Calls

Once a call is imminent or being actively sought, the student will require certification for pastoral ministry from the faculty of Concordia Seminary upon satisfactory completion of the coursework, vicarage, and theological interview requirements of the Seminary Level. The Council of Presidents will receive the name of the certified student and consider the candidate for the pastoral office. It is hoped that the candidate will receive a call from the congregation in which he served as vicar.

III. DEACONESS STUDIES

In 2002, a deaconess studies program was initiated by Concordia Seminary. At the same time, plans were undertaken to develop a non-degree deaconess studies track through the Center for Hispanic Studies. The Center now offers a course of studies unique for Latinas. The student must complete 18 courses, which include some courses taken alongside men preparing for the pastoral ministry and other courses specific to deaconess formation. The process for assigning an internship to deaconess students and for placing deaconess candidates into their office will be carried out in a manner similar to vicarage assignment and final placement of pastoral candidates.

Curriculum

P180S Foundations of Deaconess Ministry
P185S Spiritual Care of Women
S433S Man and Woman in Christ

Deaconess students are required to take all Seminary level courses pastoral track students take with the exception of the following: P103S, P130S, P131S, and P140S.

Deaconess students must also choose a course in the area of Family and another in the area of Missions. Finally, they must take two electives in one or two of the areas of specialization offered at the Seminary level.

This is a required program and must be completed through the Seminary. It is hoped that this program will be available at other institutions.

Certificación y Llamados

Cuando un llamado sea inminente o esté en proceso de ser obtenido, el estudiante requerirá certificación para el ministerio pastoral de parte de la facultad del Seminario de Concordia una vez que éste complete satisfactoriamente los cursos, el vicariato y una entrevista teológica que se requieren en el Nivel Seminario. El Concilio de Presidentes recibirá el nombre del estudiante certificado y lo considerará candidato al oficio pastoral. Se espera que la congregación donde el estudiante sirvió como vicario le extienda su primer llamado.

III. ESTUDIOS DE DIACONISAS

En el año 2002 el Seminario inició el programa para diaconisas. Hoy en día el Centro ofrece un programa especial diseñado para damas que deseen ser certificadas como diaconisas. La estudiante completará 18 materias. Algunas materias se tomarán junto con los seminaristas del Nivel Seminario y otras se enfocarán en la formación de diaconisas. Tanto el internado de la diaconisa estudiantil como su asignación al ministerio diaconal al final de sus estudios procederán de forma similar a los procesos por los que pasan los estudiantes de ruta alterna al ministerio pastoral.

Cursos

P180S Fundamentos del ministerio diaconal
P185S Cuidado espiritual de la mujer
S433S Hombre y mujer en Cristo

Estudiantes al diaconado deberán tomar todos los cursos requeridos del nivel Seminario con los estudiantes al pastorado con la excepción de los siguientes cursos: P103S, P130S, P131S, and P140S.

Estudiantes al diaconado deberán escoger un curso en el área de familia y otro en el área de misiones. Finalmente, las estudiantes deberán tomar dos materias electivas en una o dos de las áreas de especialización que se ofrecen al nivel Seminario.
IV. MASTER OF ARTS (M.A.) TRACK

In partnership with the Graduate School of Concordia Seminary, qualified CHS students may also apply to the M.A. program and a major in Missions, Family Studies, or Systematic Theology.

For more information on the Center's programs, call 1-800-677-9833, email chs@csl.edu, or visit our website at www.csl.edu.

IV. PROGRAMA DE MAESTRÍA (M.A.)

En colaboración con la escuela de posgrado del Seminario Concordia, estudiantes excelentes del nivel Seminario podrán llenar solicitud de ingreso a la maestría y especializarse en el área de misiones, estudios de la familia, or teología sistemática.

Para más información acerca de los programas de educación teológica del Centro, favor de contactarnos al 1-800-677-9833, a nuestro correo electrónico chs@csl.edu, o a nuestra página web www.csl.edu.
SPECIFIC MINISTRY PASTOR PROGRAM (SMP)
The Specific Ministry Pastor Program (SMP) exists to train pastoral leaders from existing or planned ministry and/or mission contexts. To be eligible to participate in the SMP program a man must:

• be involved in an existing congregation, ministry or district approved planned mission start,
• have demonstrated basic proficiency in Old Testament and New Testment content, Christian doctrine, leading worship, preaching, Christian witness and teaching the faith to the satisfaction of his district,
• be under the supervision of a regularly ordained pastor of Synod,
• be in possession of those characteristics ordinarily and Biblically expected of the pastoral office,
• and he must be nominated by the president of the district in which he will serve – this nomination will accompany the application materials that are sent to the seminary.

More details, including criteria, an application form, and other materials are available on the seminary website or by accessing the following link: http://www.csl.edu/admission. (Click on Specific Ministry Pastor Program)

Upon admission to the Specific Ministry Pastor program the student is assigned as a vicar in his location of service. After completing the first level of course work (approximately two years), certification, and having received a valid and legitimate call, the candidate is eligible for ordination as a Specific Ministry Pastor under the condition that he will continue his studies to complete the program (approximately two additional years).

The Specific Ministry Pastor Program is reserved for those who are needed for a specific location/type of ministry and mission. A Specific Ministry Pastor graduate is limited to serving in the specific type of ministry for which he has been certified, and must be under the ongoing supervision of a regularly ordained pastor of Synod. Some Specific Ministry Pastor courses may allow for Master of Divinity credit in the future.

All courses will be taught using the world wide web and so require a good deal of comfort with computers and the Internet. Students will work with a local pastor-supervisor who will supervise their work in ministry as vicars and assist and encourage them in processing course content.

Interested students should contact the office of the Director of Specific Ministry Pastor Program or their district office for further information. Application forms are available online. All application materials are to be sent to the applicant’s home district for further transfer to the Office of Admissions.

CURRICULUM
The curriculum for the SMP program is always under review. Courses are developed to be comparable to offerings in the Master of Divinity curriculum.

SMP116 The Church in Mission
SMP117 Pastor as Leader and Theologian
ETHNIC IMMIGRANT INSTITUTE OF THEOLOGY (EIIT)
The Ethnic Immigrant Institute of Theology offers a specialized program leading to ordination for men engaged in pastoral missionary contexts in ethnic immigrant and urban cultures in North America.

The EIIT also now offers a program for women in mission and ministry contexts, which leads to commissioning as a deaconess in The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod. Women who seek admission to the deaconess formation track are encouraged to complete the entrance-level Leadership Advancement Process (LAP) courses in Old Testament, New Testament, and Christian Doctrine. They may then apply for admission to EIIT—Deaconess Studies.

ADMISSION
Eligibility
Admission to the EIIT program is contingent on the applicant’s communicant membership in a congregation of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod (LCMS). An applicant is to have been actively involved as a communicant member in his congregation for no fewer than two years prior to enrollment. In addition, an applicant must meet the following criteria:

- Ordinarily not less than 30 years of age;
- Serving in or about to enter a Word and Sacrament ministry where no seminary-prepared pastor is available and where his presence and ministry are expected both during and after the completion of the program;
- Hold a high school diploma or equivalent.

Application
Application forms are available from the EIIT office. An application is not complete until it includes all of the following:

- Completed Application Form
- Application Fee of $50
- High School Diploma (or equivalent)
- Official Transcripts from each college or university previously attended
- Letter of Recommendation from Home Pastor
- Letter of Recommendation from the Mission Executive or the Mission and Ministry Facilitator of his Home District
- Letter of Recommendation from the District President of his Home District
- Interview Report from Home District
- One of the following:
  I. Letter from the congregation where he will serve during and after completion of the program, which indicates their approval of his service and their readiness to support his enrollment and work in EIIT; or
  II. Letter from the synodical district that appoints him to his position in the community where he will serve during and after completion of the program, which indicates their approval of his service and their readiness to support his enrollment and work in EIIT
- Letter of Endorsement from the District President of his Home District
- Protect My Ministry background check

District Endorsement
The district in which the applicant serves must screen and recommend the applicant to the program. Applicants must have a recommendation from an ordained pastor of the LCMS, their district mission executive/facilitator, and their district president.

The district in which the applicant serves, his district president, and his congregation must approve and support the ministry context in which the applicant will receive his training.

Mentors/Vicarage Supervisors
Applicants must be paired with an ordained pastor of the LCMS who will serve as their mentor/vicarage supervisor throughout the course of study.

CURRICULUM
This interdisciplinary curriculum will be delivered, taught, and received in the contextual and missional ministry settings in which each student is at work. It is therefore very specialized and individualized, requiring local mentors to spend significant time with their assigned students. Students will be expected to demonstrate a working mastery of the material in each course before moving on to the next course. All courses will be taught using the World Wide Web and so require a good deal of comfort with computers and the Internet.

VICARAGE, CERTIFICATION, AND PLACEMENT

After a student completes the fifth course, a vicarage application from the congregation he is serving will need to be processed through normal channels. (Instructions will be provided at the appropriate time.)
DEAF INSTITUTE OF THEOLOGY (DIT)
The Deaf Institute of Theology (DIT) offers a specialized program leading to ordination for men engaged in pastoral missionary work within the deaf communities and culture of North America.

The DIT also now offers a program for women in mission and ministry within the deaf communities and culture of North America, which leads to commissioning as a deaconess in The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod. Women who seek admission to the deaconess formation track are encouraged to complete the entrance-level DeafPAH courses in Old Testament, New Testament, and Christian Doctrine. They may then apply for admission to DIT—Deaconess Studies. The format for instruction parallels that of DIT—Pastoral Studies—all courses are signed and translated to American Sign Language (ASL).

ADMISSION
Eligibility
Admission to the DIT program is contingent on the applicant’s communicant membership in a congregation of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod (LCMS). An applicant is to have been actively involved as a communicant member in his congregation for not less than two years prior to enrollment. In addition, an applicant must meet the following criteria:

- Ordinarily not less than 30 years of age;
- Serving in or about to enter a Word and Sacrament ministry where no seminary-prepared pastor is available and where his presence and ministry are expected both during and after the completion of the program;
- Hold a high school diploma or equivalent.

Application
Application forms are available from the DIT office. An application is not complete until it includes all of the following:

- Completed Application Form
- Application Fee of $50
- High School Diploma (or equivalent)
- Official Transcripts from each college or university previously attended
- Letter of Recommendation from Home Pastor
- Letter of Recommendation from the Mission Executive or the Mission and Ministry Facilitator of his Home District
- Letter of Recommendation from the District President of his Home District
- Interview Report from Home District
- One of the following:
  I. Letter from the congregation where he will serve during and after completion of the program, which indicates their approval of his service and their readiness to support his enrollment and work in DIT; or
  II. Letter from the synodical district that appoints him to his position in the community where he will serve during and after completion of the program, which indicates their approval of his service and their readiness to support his enrollment and work in DIT
- Letter of Endorsement from the District President of his Home District
- Protect My Ministry background check

District Endorsement
The district in which the applicant serves must screen and recommend the applicant to the program. Applicants must have a recommendation from an ordained pastor of the LCMS, their district mission executive/facilitator, and their district president.

The district in which the applicant serves, his district president, and his congregation must approve and support the ministry context in which the applicant will receive his training.

Mentors/Vicarage Supervisors
Applicants must be paired with an ordained pastor of the LCMS who will serve as their mentor/vicarage supervisor throughout the course of study.

CURRICULUM
This interdisciplinary curriculum will be delivered, taught, and received in the contextual and missional ministry settings in which each student is at work. It is therefore very specialized and individualized, requiring local mentors to spend significant time with their assigned students. Students will be expected to demonstrate a working mastery of the material in each course before moving on to the next course.

VICARAGE, CERTIFICATION, AND PLACEMENT

After a student completes EIIT05, a vicarage application from the congregation he is serving will need to be processed through normal channels. (Instructions will be provided at the appropriate time.)

CROSS-CULTURAL MINISTRY CENTER (CCMC)
The Cross-Cultural Ministry Center (CCMC) has been established by Concordia University, Irvine, California, in conjunction with Concordia Seminary and with the Pacific Southwest District of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, in order to provide directed preparation for ordained ministry to men who will serve in the sociocultural contexts of specific ethnic populations and multicultural communities.

ADMISSION
Admission to the CCMC program requires simultaneous admission to the Master of Arts, Theology and Culture Emphasis program of Concordia University, Irvine.

CURRICULUM
Successful completion of the academic elements of the CCMC program requires the following:
• Demonstrated Proficiency in Biblical Greek;
• Demonstrated Proficiency in a Modern Foreign Language (ordinarily the language of the ministry context in which the student will serve);
• Satisfactory Completion of the Pastor Certification Courses designated and accredited by Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, with a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or above;
• Satisfactory Performance in the CCMC Vicarage Program (passing grades in each of eight segments);
• Satisfactory Completion of the Master of Arts degree, Theology and Culture Emphasis, of Concordia University, Irvine, with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above.

CERTIFICATION AND PLACEMENT
Certification
In addition to the academic requirements indicated above, successful completion of the CCMC program requires:
• Endorsement by the Pastor Certification Committee at Concordia University, Irvine;
• Certification by the Faculty of Concordia Seminary, St. Louis.

Placement
Upon completion of the program and certification by the faculty and upon completion of call documents by the congregation and district, it is expected that the candidate will be placed as a pastor where he has served as vicar.

CONTACT INFORMATION
For more information about the CCMC program, contact Concordia University, 1530 Concordia West, Irvine CA 92612-3299; 949-854-8002.
DEACONESS STUDIES

Purpose
Deaconess Studies at Concordia Seminary is designed for Christian women who seek to further their knowledge of theology and its ministry and diaconal applications so they can serve in a congregation or institution of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod (LCMS) as a deaconess. There are five paths of study which Concordia Seminary offers, which lead to certification as a Minister of Religion-Commissioned, Deaconess, in the LCMS. The two residential paths are described below. Three other paths are available, via distance and extension education, from the Ethnic Immigrant Institute of Theology (EIIT), the Center for Hispanic Studies (CHS), and the Deaf Institute of Theology (DIT).

M.A. in Deaconess Studies
Students studying for the M.A. in Deaconess Studies acquire a general competence in the study of theological studies and the practice of diaconal ministry. No major or minor areas are required but there are ample opportunities to specialize in specific areas. Certification is granted to students who fulfill the program requirements, which include 54 hours of academic study inclusive of resident field education and internship, and display competence and fitness for diaconal ministry. The M.A. in Deaconess Studies is a first professional degree.

Graduate School M.A. with Deaconess Certification
Women seeking certification as a deaconess may also apply to the Graduate School during their second year of their diaconal studies and, upon acceptance, expand their program requirements by choosing a major in practical, systematic, or exegetical theology in a 60-hour degree program. The requirements of the Graduate School M.A. are to be fulfilled in addition to resident field education and internship.

ADMISSION
Eligibility
Admission to Deaconess Studies ordinarily is contingent on the student’s membership in a congregation of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod or of a church body in fellowship with the Synod. An applicant is to have been involved actively as a communicant member in a Lutheran congregation for not less than two years prior to enrollment.

College Preparation
Applicants to Deaconess Studies ordinarily must possess a bachelor’s degree from an accredited college or university, with a cumulative grade point average of 2.5 or higher (on a 4.0 scale). The degree should represent a broad liberal arts background and should include courses in English composition, writing, and speech. It also should include courses in the humanities, psychology, social sciences, natural sciences, and religion. Applicants also may find it helpful to take at least one foreign language.

Entry-Level Competencies
All students admitted to Deaconess Studies must demonstrate entry-level competence in the following areas: Old Testament content, New Testament content, and basic Christian doctrine. Competence is demonstrated by passing either the applicable Entry-Level Competence Examinations (ELCEs) by April 30 or the corresponding preparatory courses. The Admissions Department will provide information to all applicants regarding administration of the ELCEs.

The following standards apply to the ECLEs:
- One may begin taking the content ELCEs May 1 of the year prior to enrollment, and the language ELCEs August 1 in the year prior to enrollment.
- A student ordinarily will be afforded as many as three opportunities to pass each ELCE. After an unsuccessful attempt to pass an ELCE, an interval of 21 days must pass before another attempt to pass the same ELCE. This means that fewer attempts will be available to a student as the April 30 deadline approaches.
- A student who has passed the Old Testament, New Testament, and Christian Doctrine ELCEs by April 30 may register for one of the biblical language classes in the Summer Quarter; Greek is usually taken first.
- A student who has not passed the Old Testament, New Testament, and Christian Doctrine ELCEs by April 30 should register for any applicable preseminary remedial courses in the Summer Quarter.
Application
Application forms are available from the Admissions Office and online at www.csl.edu. The application deadline is March 31.

An application is not complete until it includes all of the following:

- Application
- Background check (“Protect My Ministry” background check initiated through Admissions)
- $50 fee
- Official transcripts (note: if you have not finished college, we still need a preliminary transcript but also the final transcript after completion.)
- Pastor’s letter of recommendation
- District Interview Committee (or equivalent) report
- GRE scores
- CUS president’s recommendation or other academic reference
- Current photograph.

Students for whom English is a second language also must submit an official report of TOEFL scores and a brief theological essay in English. The ordinary minimum overall TOEFL score (computer-based test) is 200. Applicants whose competency in English is weak may be required to do extra work in this area before beginning studies in the program.

Completed FAFSA forms must be updated and all Financial Aid forms filed by April 5. For online information, go to www.csl.edu, select “Student Services,” and then select “Financial Assistance.”

CURRICULUM
General Requirements
The M.A. in Deaconess Studies is designed to prepare women to serve the church of today in competent diaconal ministry. The curriculum requires 54 quarter hours of credit, distributed as outlined below. The curriculum is designed so that ordinarily it can be completed in three years, including the internship.

CURRICULAR PRACTICAL TRAINING
Resident Field Education
Each deaconess student will participate for four hours per week during six academic quarters in Resident Field Education (RFE). Assignments will be made in congregational and institutional ministry settings in order to develop diaconal skills under the supervision of an experienced pastor or deaconess. Submission of regular reports by the student and the supervisor are required elements for satisfactory performance of field education assignments.
Internship
A 12-month internship is required of all deaconess students. The internship ordinarily follows the completion of all class work and field education requirements. DC203 Deaconess Seminar III is a post-internship required seminar.

DUAL DEGREE PROGRAMS
For information regarding Dual Degree programs with Fontbonne University or Saint Louis University, please contact the Registrar’s office.

ACADEMIC STANDARDS
Students are expected to maintain the highest level of scholarship of which they are capable. Concordia Seminary assumes that students are mature enough to determine, with the assistance of available counsel, when activities other than class work are beneficial and when they are detrimental to satisfactory progress. Such activities include participation in on- or off-campus organizations, and employment.

Satisfactory Progress
A minimum curriculum grade point average (curriculum GPA) of 2.35 is required for satisfactory progress toward the M.A. in Deaconess Studies degree, where satisfactory progress includes, first, eligibility to receive a vicarage assignment, later, eligibility for certification and placement (first Call) and, finally, eligibility to receive the theological diploma and the M.A. in Deaconess Studies degree.

Academic Probation
A student whose curriculum GPA falls below 2.35 or whose grade point average in any quarter (term GPA) falls below 2.00 will be placed on academic probation. The probationary status serves as a warning that the student is not making satisfactory progress and, unless improvement is achieved, will be subject to dismissal from the Seminary. The director of the deaconess studies program and/or the dean of ministerial formation will meet with the student to identify factors which may have contributed to the unsatisfactory academic performance and to help establish strategies for improvement. A student who continues on academic probation for two consecutive quarters may be dismissed because of academic deficiency. NOTE: The director of financial aid is notified when students are placed on academic probation, and there may be financial aid consequences (for example, reduction of grants, limits on new education loan disbursements). Students who are placed on academic probation will be directed to meet with the director of financial aid.

Withdrawal
A student who wishes to withdraw from the deaconess studies program must consult the director of the deaconess studies program before withdrawing (the director may direct the student to meet also with the dean of ministerial formation). To withdraw as a student in good standing, the student must have a satisfactory record of conduct and must have satisfied all obligations to the school (e.g., return all checked-out books to the library, clear accounts with finance and financial aid).

Dismissal
Concordia Seminary retains the authority to dismiss students, but exercises this authority with considerable restraint.

GRANTING OF DEGREE
The Master of Arts in Deaconess Studies will be conferred upon satisfactory completion of all academic and professional training requirements.

CERTIFICATION AND PLACEMENT
Upon certification by the faculty of Concordia Seminary as qualified for a first call as a deaconess, the deaconess candidate indicates her dedication to deaconess ministry and readiness to accept an assignment in The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod. The Committee for the Placement of Commissioned Ministers and the Director of Placement of Concordia Seminary will cooperate to identify a position into which the candidate shall be placed in her first call by the Council of Presidents of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod.
DOCTOR OF MINISTRY PROGRAM

Purpose
The Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.) degree is the highest professional degree in ministry and is distinctly different from the academic degrees of the graduate school. It is intended to equip men in the parish and chaplaincy ministry for a higher level of competence in the practice of pastoral ministry.

PREREQUISITES AND ADMISSION
For admission to the program the applicant ordinarily will have an M.Div. degree (ordinarily with a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or higher on a 4.0 scale) from an accredited theological institution equivalent to that offered by Concordia Seminary. The applicant ordinarily should have three years of experience in the parish or related ministry following reception of the M.Div. degree. He is to exhibit professional competence that is above average, as attested by evaluations from his peers.

A completed application form must be sent to the director of the D.Min. program. It is available from the D.Min. office or from the Seminary web site at www.csl.edu/apply. The student will prepare a five-page statement covering his professional experience and his personal goals in the D.Min. program and also will provide a statement from his congregation or agency approving his enrollment in the D.Min. program. He will secure professional references from four evaluators (identified on the application form). Official transcripts from each seminary previously attended and a $50 application fee are to be submitted before the application can be acted on.

REQUIREMENTS
I. Guidance for the student’s course of study is offered through a required five session orientation, normally taken during one of his first sessions on campus. No academic credit is granted for this orientation.

II. The student must earn a total of 54 credit hours, which includes the 6 hours for a major applied project. 48 hours are selected from a schedule of seminars (6 credit hours each) and courses (3 credit hours each). Seminars and courses, taught in intensive terms, require the student to be absent from his parish or other ministry for short periods of time. Seminars and courses have three parts:

A. The Pre-residency Period. During this time period the student completes reading assignments (approximately 3,000 pages for a seminar and 1,500 pages for a course) and written reaction/reflection papers which are due at the beginning of the classroom session.

B. The Residency Period. This is a two week classroom experience on campus. Seminars meet for 3.5 hours ordinarily in the morning and courses for 1.75 hours ordinarily in the afternoon.

C. The Post-residency Period. This covers the 10 weeks following the residency period and provides time for the completion of an assigned term paper or project which draws upon the readings and classroom interaction as these apply to the student’s context of ministry.

III. The student must maintain a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.0 on a 4.0 scale. Individual seminars and courses will be credited toward degree requirements only with a grade of B- or better.

IV. No more than 18 hours may be earned in a year (September through August), except by special permission from the Doctor of Ministry Committee.

V. A maximum of 24 hours of a student’s program may be gained through a combination of independent study, transfer credit, and extension or wrap-around courses of Concordia Seminary. Of the 24 hours, a maximum of 3 hours may be earned through independent study, a maximum of 9 hours may be transferred from other graduate programs approved by the director of the D.Min. program, a maximum of 18 hours may be transferred from the Joint Military Education program (JPME Phase 1) into the Military Chaplaincy concentration only, and a maximum of 18 hours may be earned through seminary extension/wrap-around courses.

VI. Candidates must take DM995 Project Research and Writing before submitting a proposal for the major applied project.

VII. The topic for the major applied project, approved by the project advisor using a form obtained from the director of the D.Min. program, must be submitted to the director at least six months before the degree is to be awarded. The candidate registers for the project following the approval of the topic by the D.Min. Committee.

VIII. The semi-final draft of the major applied project must be submitted to the advisor and reader by the following deadlines: March 1 for May graduation, June 1 for August graduation, September 1 for November graduation, December 1 for February graduation.

IX. The candidate must defend his major applied project at an oral examination before final approval.

X. The final approved version of the major applied project must be submitted to the advisor and director by the following deadlines: May 1 for May graduation, August 1 for August graduation, November 1 for November graduation, February 1 for February graduation.

XI. All requirements ordinarily must be completed in six years. Extension of this time limit may be requested, utilizing the appropriate form, but is not automatically granted by the Doctor of Ministry Committee.

CURRICULUM
The Doctor of Ministry curriculum entails core courses, concentration classes, free electives, and work on the major applied project.

Students are required to take three core courses, totaling nine credit hours. These are in the disciplines of exegetical, systematic, and historical theology, which provide students with a review of the state of each discipline and an analysis of contemporary issues relevant to the discipline.

Students have four curriculum options: the general pastoral ministry concentration, the homiletics concentration, the missional leadership concentration, and the military chaplaincy concentration. Each concentration requires 24 credit hours selected from class offerings approved for that area of concentration.

The student is allowed up to 12 credit hours of free electives. Any course or seminar offered (except for those that are required for the student’s program of study) may qualify as a free elective.

Students must also complete a major applied project, which is the final step in the curriculum process. Having successfully completed the orientation, two seminars, and two courses, a student may seek degree candidacy status by applying to the D.Min. Committee. Upon approval of candidacy, the student is eligible to work on his major applied project. He is required to take a course in research methodology and project design before submitting a proposal for the major applied project to the D.Min. Committee. With the committee's approval he may begin to undertake writing his project. The project is designed to incorporate meaningful research, reading, and insights from class work, and to build a bridge between the doctrinal and practical aspects of the ministry under consideration. The congregation or agency participates in the process.

CREDITS
Credits for D.Min. seminars and courses are not equivalent to credits for courses in the graduate school. Thus credits are not transferable from the D.Min. program to the S.T.M. or Ph.D. programs.

FINANCIAL AID
Significant financial assistance for tuition is available for all D.Min. students. A description of anticipated expenses is available from the D.Min. office to assist in planning one’s academic program.
GRADUATE SCHOOL

Background
Concordia Seminary’s Graduate School, known prior to 1998 as the School for Graduate Studies, traces its origins to a resolution of the 1920 Detroit convention of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod (LCMS), which was implemented with the introduction of graduate courses in theology in the fall of 1922. Since that time, except for the years 1931 to 1937, when a depression economy dictated temporary suspension of its operation, the Graduate School has served the Synod and the church-at-large by contributing to the advanced theological training of pastors, teachers, and laity. In 1954, the Graduate School was designated also as a research center for the LCMS.

Initially, only course work leading to the degree of Master of Sacred Theology (S.T.M.) was offered, but in 1944, the Doctor of Theology (Th.D.) program was added. In 1956, graduate offerings were expanded further to include programs leading to the degree of Master of Arts in Religion (M.A.R.), which was changed in 1989 to the degree of Master of Arts (M.A.). In 1998, the nomenclature for the doctorate was changed to Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.).

Purpose
The degrees offered by the Graduate School are configured to support the Mission Statement of Concordia Seminary, viz., to provide for the church and, through the church, for the world, both clergy and lay scholars of the highest level of competence, to bear witness to the truth and to the Gospel of God. Development of and modifications to any programs are designed to further the mission detailed by this statement.

The motto of the Graduate School is “Addressing Contemporary Issues with the Historic Christian Faith.” Therefore, the Graduate School of Concordia Seminary does not provide secular programs of learning that attempt to consider problems and issues in a purely humanistic way, unrelated to the revelation of God, the Gospel, and the Christian faith. Rather, the Graduate School offers its students opportunities to grow in their abilities to apply rigorous scholarship to contemporary issues within the context of creedal Christianity as it has been confessed throughout the ages. The requirements of the particular degree and the student’s area of interest will orient these opportunities to consideration of Biblical evidence, confessional evidence, systematic theological deliberations, historical theological developments, or practical theological considerations.

I. The Graduate School functions:
A. To give qualified Seminary graduates, pastors, and lay men and women an opportunity to acquire the content and method of theological scholarship, under the guidance of a faculty motivated by reverence for the Scriptures as the Word of God and loyalty to the Lutheran Confessions;
B. To provide the opportunity for qualified individuals to acquire advanced credits and degrees in theology or religion for increased effectiveness in their professional activities;
C. To serve as an instrument in developing effective leadership for the church in doctrine and practice; and
D. To serve as a theological research center for the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod.

II. Within the framework of their respective programs (M.A., S.T.M., or Ph.D.) and in terms of understanding, skills, and attitudes, students in the Graduate School pursue the following objectives:
A. Understanding
   1. To develop a greater awareness of the comprehensive nature and the scope of Christian theology—a discipline both related to and different from academic disciplines:
      a. As a proper field for further academic specialization;
      b. As the continuing task of the Christian community in light of its total heritage; and
      c. As the responsibility of trained and qualified individuals in the service of the Christian community.
2. To develop a greater understanding of the various theological disciplines and how they relate to each other.
3. To develop an understanding of current concerns and emphases in the total academic and ecclesiastical community.
4. To develop a greater understanding of the nature of theological concepts and the function of theological formulations in the life of a Christian community.
5. To develop an understanding of the emphases and concerns expressed in the theological traditions of the Christian church, with special reference to The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod.
   a. On the M.A. level, stress is laid primarily on general comprehension of Biblical and doctrinal theology.
   b. The S.T.M. program is directed toward the development of special competence in one area of a theological discipline as that area relates specifically to the discipline as a whole and generally to the disciplines.
   c. The Ph.D. program is directed toward specialization in one area of a theological discipline as that area relates specifically to the discipline as a whole and generally to the disciplines.

B. Skills
   1. To develop greater ability for independent inquiry in theological questions.
   2. To master the bibliographical resources required for research.
   3. To develop increasing skill in applying responsible methods to research.
   4. To develop increasing ability in articulating and communicating the results of theological research.
   5. To develop the ability to discover, and apply to current situations and problems, new relationships among theological concepts and formulations.

C. Attitudes
   1. To grow in gratitude for God’s self-disclosure in the Scriptures and for the Holy Spirit’s continuing guidance of the church’s worship, proclamation, and instruction through the centuries.
   2. To develop a more humble submission to the authority of the divine revelation.
   3. To develop an increasing sense of responsibility for retaining and transmitting the heritage of truth committed to the church.
   4. To strengthen the willingness to serve the church both in its general and its specialized tasks.
   5. To develop a stronger sense of loyalty to the traditions of the Lutheran church as they are found in its Confessions (applicable in the case of Lutheran students only).

Especially suited to study in the Graduate School of Concordia Seminary is the student whose commitment is in keeping with the motto of the Graduate School (“Addressing Contemporary Issues with the Historic Christian Faith”), whose goal is the application of rigorous scholarship to contemporary issues within the context of creedal Christianity as it has been confessed throughout the ages for the sake of engaging and advancing the “Great Tradition.” Graduate students need not be Lutherans or members of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, but they will be exposed to and challenged to interact with the insights and approaches of evangelical Lutheran theology.

STUDENT STATUS Application
To enter one of the Graduate School degree programs, the student must fill out the appropriate application form (forms are available at www.csl.edu/apply) and submit it along with the other materials required (as listed on the form) to the Graduate School. It should be noted that requirements differ, depending upon whether or not the applicant is a graduate of Concordia Seminary, St. Louis.

I. Deadlines
Applications are considered by the Advanced Studies Committee (ASC) at set times throughout the year. All application materials must be received by the deadline in order for an applicant to be considered for admission. Note that there are different dates/deadlines for each degree (see degree program descriptions for deadlines for each program).

II. General Procedures
A. All applications presenting adequate qualifications for acceptance are considered by the ASC and are approved or declined by it.
B. All applications are considered in their totality. It should be noted that a student who meets stated requirements is not in any way assured of admission.
C. Neither grade point average nor GRE scores are the sole consideration. It should be noted, however, that a grade point average below the minimum standard or GRE scores below the 50th percentile constitute sufficient cause for declining admission to any of the graduate programs. Scores more than five years old may not be submitted for consideration.
D. The procedure for the acceptance of Ph.D. students is more complex than that for the other degrees. The following is the regular procedure:
   1. The ASC will rule on the general qualifications of all applicants. All will be placed into one of three categories:
      a. Highly qualified and highly recommended
      b. Basically qualified
      c. Unqualified and declined
   2. To develop a greater understanding of the various theological disciplines and how they relate to each other.
   3. That department will judge on the possibility of accepting new students into the doctoral program and will report its judgment to the director of the Graduate School. Key will be the availability of an appropriate Doktorvater. Normally, unless the department rules otherwise, each doctoral supervisor should have no more than three active students at any one time.
   4. The department may, for various reasons (e.g., manpower), recommend that the applicant consider another department in which to undertake doctoral work.
   5. Certain entry-level work also may be required of the incoming student as deemed necessary by either the ASC or the department.

Full-Time/Good-Standing Status
Students studying less than half-time will be in repayment status of student loans. International students also must maintain fulltime status as a condition of their class F-1 visa. Specific conditions for full-time status are described in each degree program section that follows. Any student who fails to register for two subsequent quarters or fails to demonstrate academic progress for two successive academic years will be retired from the program.

Preparation Fee
The specific conditions for full-time status listed in each degree program include provisions for registering for and paying a preparation fee in order to maintain status. Authorization to register for and pay the preparation fee presupposes that a student will be engaged full time in activities relevant to the completion of his or her degree program. It presupposes that a student will not be employed for more than 20 hours per week.

Credit, Course Load, and Employment
Students in the Graduate School may not register for an "overload" without the permission of the director of the Graduate School. The director's permission also is required for any plan to be inactive in any program. of the Graduate School. Full-time students in the Graduate School may not be gainfully employed for more than 20 hours per week. Course work older than seven years may not be counted for credit toward a degree of the Graduate School unless reviewed and approved for this by the Advanced Studies Committee.

EXAMINATIONS
Language Proficiency
To demonstrate proficiency in the Biblical languages, Latin, and modern foreign languages, students must pass courses or examinations administered by the director of the Graduate School. Proficiency in such languages may be demonstrated also by transcript credit, as approved by the director of the Graduate School.

Retaking Examinations
Language proficiency examinations, qualifying examinations, and other graduate examinations may be taken no more than twice. Any student who twice fails a language proficiency, qualifying, entry-level competency or comprehensive exam will be dismissed from the program.

THESSES, EXAMS, AND DISSERTATIONS
Original Registration
Registration for the M.A. thesis, S.T.M. thesis or M.A. or S.T.M. exam preparation shall be valid for one calendar year (four quarters, including the summer). Registration for the Ph.D. comprehensive exam preparation shall be valid for two quarters (including the summer, only if an exam is taken in the summer). Registration for the Doctor’s dissertation shall take place on a quarterly basis for two calendar years (eight quarters, including the summers).

Renewal/Extension
When a student’s original registration period expires, an extension fee will be assessed quarterly until the written project or examinations, as applicable, have been completed, as certified by the director of the Graduate School.

CONFERRAL OF DEGREES
Intention to Graduate
Graduation is possible in any quarter. The formal conferring of a diploma, however, takes place only once per year, at the May graduation and commencement exercises. The exact date for this is published in the current Academic Catalog.

Participation in Commencement
Graduate students who are receiving degrees ordinarily are expected to attend the exercises at which their degrees will be awarded.

Relationship of Academic Degree and Church Placement
Successful completion of a degree program in the Graduate School does not constitute recommendation toward placement in a professional church position in The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod. Approval of a student’s thesis/dissertation does not necessarily imply agreement with the student’s argumentation or conclusions.

FINANCIAL AID
Basic Funding
Each degree has its own arrangements for basic financial aid. Aid is given to all students who qualify, whether members of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod or not. Application forms must be filled out each school year for basic financial aid to be awarded and must be submitted before the deadline specified by the director of financial aid.

Additional Scholarships and Fellowships
A number of additional financial aid opportunities may be available to S.T.M. and Ph.D. students. Information can be obtained from the Graduate School section of the Seminary’s Portal site.

STUDENT LIFE
Housing
Dormitory housing for single male students residing on campus is normally not a problem, provided that the student makes a request to the director of housing in a timely manner. On-campus housing for married graduate students is possible upon approval of application to the director of housing. The relocation specialist in the Life Transitions Office has extensive listings of affordable housing throughout St. Louis.

Information
The Graduate School seeks to keep graduate students informed at all times of developments in their programs, dates of examinations, and deadlines for the submission of materials, as well as to provide news that may be of general interest. Several outlets for this exist, including Daily Announcements, email notifications sent to CSL student accounts, the Graduate Studies Bulletin, and the Graduate School section of the Seminary’s Portal site.

Orientation Sessions
Specific meetings designed to inform graduate students will be held on a regular basis. The first and primary of these occurs during the orientation week before the beginning of the academic year. All new students are expected to attend this general orientation. In addition, a session will be held to orient students to the library, its holdings, and the services of its staff during the orientation week. Again, all new students are expected to take advantage of this session.

Graduate Studies Bulletin
A source of additional and essential information is the Graduate Studies Bulletin. The Bulletin is published in the fall, winter, and spring of each year and contains specific information on programs and reports on faculty doings that are of interest to graduate students, as well as other matters of interest to students and faculty alike.

Web pages and Email
The web pages for the Graduate School post announcements and make available forms and information needed by students. The Graduate School also manages an email distribution list for the purpose of keeping students informed by means of their CSL student accounts.

Social Aspects
The social life of graduate students is most important. They are part of a community of learners with similar interests, and they seek to grow in their ability to relate to those fellow scholars on both an academic and personal level. Especially important in this regard is the interaction with visiting scholars who may be either teaching or presenting a public lecture on the campus. By such interaction, students become comfortable with authorities in various disciplines with whom they will one day become peers.

Worship
As noted above, the motto of Concordia Seminary’s Graduate School is “Addressing Contemporary Issues with the Historic Christian Faith.” Congruent with this motto is a commitment of the Graduate School students to worship. Daily chapel services are conducted Monday through Friday, whenever classes are in session.

Concluding General Considerations
Graduate students are, in large measure, subject to the same rules and regulations as are M.Div. students while they study at Concordia Seminary. Basic information about campus life is available in the Concordia Seminary Student Handbook. The academic policies and procedures of the Graduate School are to be found in the Academic Catalog and on the Graduate School Portal site. All requests for permissions regarding the academic policies and procedures of the Graduate School should be made to its director.
MASTER OF ARTS

Purpose
The purpose of studying for the degree of Master of Arts (M.A.) is to acquire a general competence in biblical and doctrinal theology, including a major in one area of theology. A student who completes the M.A. program may apply for admission to the Ph.D. program.

The Master of Arts is designed for both clergy and laity. It is especially helpful for Christian men and women who seek to further their knowledge of theology, so that they may give appropriate leadership in their congregations and communities. M.A. students choose a major and minor from the following four options: exegetical theology, historical theology, practical theology, and systematic theology. The students also will have the opportunity to take additional courses outside of the major and minor areas. For guidance in these and other matters, students should consult the M.A. Course Selection Guide in the Graduate School section of the Seminary’s Portal site.

ADMISSION

Eligibility
For admission to the Master of Arts program, an applicant must hold a bachelor’s degree from an accredited educational institution, with a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or higher (on a 4.0 scale).

Application
Application forms may be obtained from the CSL website at www.csl.edu/apply. The application deadline is February 7. An application is not complete until it includes all of the following:

- Completed Application Form
- Application Fee of $50 (those who are applying both to the M.A. and to one of the Seminary’s ministerial formation programs pay this fee only with their first application)
- Official Report of GRE Scores (scores older than five years will not be accepted)
- Official Transcripts from each college or university and seminary previously attended
- International students also must submit an official report of TOEFL scores with a minimum score of 200 (CBT), 72-73 (IBT) or 533 (PBT) and a brief theological essay in English.
- All applicants failing to demonstrate a sufficient competency in English composition may be required to do entry-level work in this area.
- Alternate Route, M.A. in Deaconess Studies, and Center for Hispanic Studies students may consider applying after they have completed one half of the coursework for their programs.

Matriculation
Prior to matriculation, all M.A. students must demonstrate proficiency in basic Christian doctrine (as represented especially in Luther’s Small and Large Catechisms), Old Testament content, and New Testament content. Proficiency may be demonstrated by passing entrance exams or by passing applicable courses (credit not applicable to the M.A. degree) at Concordia Seminary. Applicants must take the exams by February 7. If an exam is not passed on the first attempt, the student may either attempt the exam a second and final time or attempt to successfully complete the associated pre-seminary course during the summer term preceding matriculation (but may not do both).

GENERAL ACADEMIC REQUIREMENTS
M.A. students may take many of the same courses taken by the Master of Divinity (M.Div.) students. It is therefore important to register at the correct time in order to ensure a place in desired courses. M.A. students may go to the Office of the Graduate School for advice on selecting appropriate courses.

1. Students must complete at least 60 quarter hours of credit with a cumulative curriculum grade point average of 3.0 or higher. Graduates of a theological seminary must complete at least 36 quarter hours of credit at Concordia Seminary with a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or higher. A student whose cumulative curriculum grade point average falls below 3.0 will be placed on academic probation. The probationary status serves as a warning that the student is not making satisfactory progress and that, unless the quality of the work improves, will be subject to dismissal from the Graduate School.
School. Ordinarily, a student whose cumulative grade point average remains below a 3.0 for two consecutive quarters will be dismissed.

II. Individual courses will satisfy the requirements of the graduate M.A. only when completed with a grade of “B-” or better.

Student Status
International students must maintain full-time status as a condition of their class F-1 visa. Students in the M.A. program (except Certificate program students, who also are enrolled in the M.A. program) maintain full-time status if they satisfy one of the following conditions:

- Are registered for at least eight credit hours per quarter (excluding summer); or
- Are registered for and engaged in full-time research and writing of the master’s thesis; or
- Are engaged in full-time preparation for master’s degree comprehensive exams.

CURRICULUM - GENERAL THEOLOGICAL STUDIES

Special Program Requirements - Major
A candidate for the M.A. (General Theological Studies) will choose a major and a minor in one of the following departments:

- Exegetical Theology
- Systematic Theology
- Historical Theology
- Practical Theology

The student may not fail more than two courses in either the major or the minor and still successfully complete the major or the minor.

Language Proficiency
There are no general requirements for foreign language proficiency for the M.A. However, ordinarily students whose major is exegetical theology will be required to demonstrate proficiency in Biblical Greek and may be required to demonstrate proficiency in Biblical Hebrew to complete courses conducted on the basis of the biblical languages.

Program Options
Subject to the approval of the department of the student’s major, the M.A. program is substantially a classroom program, concluding with one of two options:

Examination

I. If the student chooses the examination option, the test in the major area may be taken at any time but is normally best taken during the last quarter of the program.

II. The student must complete 24 hours of credit in a major, three of which may be earned by a research project (795), as well as completing 18 hours of credit in a minor. The student must complete an additional 18 hours of credit, at least nine of which are earned in a third area. Graduates of a theological seminary must complete 21 hours of credit in a major, nine hours of credit in a minor, and six additional hours of credit in eligible courses of their choice.

III. A total of six credits for acceptable graduate courses in religion or theology may be transferred from another accredited graduate school provided that prior approval of the courses is obtained from the director of the Graduate School. A total of 12 credit hours may be transferred from Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne, Indiana.

IV. Students must pass a written comprehensive examination that tests their general understanding of and their ability to interpret and relate theological information in their major area. (Students in practical theology will in part choose and be tested in one of the following subject areas: Pastoral Theology, Pastoral Care and Counseling, Christian Education, Preaching, Worship, and World Missions; for this reason, representative course work toward the major in the area of the student’s choosing always should be done in preparation for the exam.) A basic bibliography, specific statements of guidance, and sample questions designed to aid in preparing for the examinations are available from the Graduate School section of the Seminary’s Portal site. The examinations are administered under the guidance of the director of the Graduate School. No examination may be taken more than twice. In order to participate in commencement, the examination must be taken and passed by March 15.

V. Courses taken for credit through Concordia Seminary’s Center for Hispanic Studies may be applied to the graduate M.A. This option allows for the completion of the M.A. through courses taught entirely in Spanish.

Thesis

I. The student must complete 30 hours of credit in a major, six of which are earned by writing an acceptable thesis, 15 hours of credit in a minor, and 15 additional hours of credit in eligible courses of the student’s choice, at least nine of which are earned in a third area. Graduates of a theological seminary must complete 24 hours of credit in a major, six of which are earned by writing an acceptable thesis, nine hours of credit in a minor, and three additional hours of credit in an eligible course of the student’s choice.

II. No credits may be transferred from a program at another graduate school.

III. The thesis option involves the student in less course work but more writing. The student may register for the thesis at any time, but, after one year from the date of registration, an extension fee will be due if the thesis has not been completed. Accordingly, it is generally advisable to register for the thesis during or immediately after the quarter in which the last course work has been taken. If the thesis option is selected, the thesis may be submitted at any time, but it must be submitted on a specific schedule to ensure graduation and participation in commencement.

IV. The work of the thesis proceeds according to the guidelines specified in the M.A. Thesis Procedures document on the Graduate School’s Portal site.

Time Limit and Reinstatement

The student must complete the M.A. program in five years. The files of students who are not able to complete the work in this time-period will be retired. Students who fail to make academic progress for more than two years or fail to register for two successive quarters will be retired. Students who wish to be reinstated may request this of the Advanced Studies Committee. Reinstatement, if granted, is valid for two calendar years and may be made only once.
MASTER OF SACRED THEOLOGY

Purpose
The purpose of studying for the degree of Master of Sacred Theology (S.T.M.) is to acquire a special competence in some field of theological learning, and to gain skill in effectively using the tools and results of theological research. The Master of Sacred Theology degree is appropriate for clergy who hold a Master of Divinity degree and seek to do further work. It is more general than the Ph.D. A student who completes the S.T.M. program may apply for admission to the Ph.D. program. After completing 18 hrs. of coursework and demonstrating a modern foreign research language proficiency, the S.T.M. student may request of the Advanced Studies Committee in written form a rollover into the Ph.D.

ADMISSION

Eligibility
An applicant must have earned a Master of Divinity degree, or a first graduate theological degree providing comparable theological background, or its educational equivalent, from an accredited theological seminary, with a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or higher (on a 4.0 scale).

Application
Application forms are available from the CSL website. The application deadline is January 7. An application is not complete until it includes all of the following:
- Completed Application Form
- Application Fee of $50
- All applicants must present two letters of recommendation.
- Applicants who have not received a degree from Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, must submit a third letter of recommendation from the educational institution most recently attended.
- Official Report of GRE Scores (scores older than five years will not be accepted)
  NOTE: Students whose analytical writing score is less than 5.5, and who intend to write a STM thesis, may be required to complete a remedial writing course. Credit for the course is not applicable to the degree.
- Official Transcripts from each college or university and seminary attended

Students whose first language is not English must obtain an official report of TOEFL scores with a minimum score of 213 (CBT), 79-80 (IBT) or 550 (paper-based)
- All applicants must submit a brief theological essay in English (Again, those failing to demonstrate a sufficient competency in English composition may be required to do entry-level work in this area).

Matriculation
Because entrance and graduation requirements of Concordia Seminary must be met as a condition of admission, Greek and Hebrew are required for this degree. The degree also requires a modern foreign language in which theological literature is written or in which theological work will be able to be accomplished. Normally, proficiency in such a language is demonstrated by examination. Arrangement is made to take these examinations through the Office of the Graduate School. On an individual basis and upon petition to the director of the Graduate School, such proficiency may be deemed to have been demonstrated on the basis of college transcript credit.

CURRICULUM

General Requirements
Normally, the full-time student takes either two courses (at the 800 level) or three courses (one at the 800 level and two at the 400 level) per quarter.

I. The student must complete a minimum of 36 quarter hours of credit beyond the M.Div. degree or its equivalent with a cumulative curriculum grade point average of at least 3.0 (on a 4.0 scale). Individual courses will be credited toward degree requirements only when completed with a grade of “B-” or better. A student whose cumulative grade point average falls below a 3.0 will be placed on academic probation. The probationary status serves as a warning that the student is not making satisfactory progress and that, unless the quality of work improves, will be subject to dismissal from the Graduate School. Ordinarily, a student whose cumulative grade point average remains below a 3.0 for two consecutive quarters will be dismissed.
II. Each student must declare a major and a minor, choosing from exegetical, systematic, historical, and practical theology. The student may not fail more than two courses in either the major or the minor and still successfully complete the major or the minor.

A. If the major or minor is exegetical theology, the student must earn at least three quarter hours of credit in Old Testament and three quarter hours of credit in New Testament. The student may include up to three quarter hours of credit in a cognate language.

B. If the major is practical theology and the student’s preference is the exam route (see below), the student shall choose and in part be tested in one of the following subject areas: Pastoral Theology, Pastoral Care and Counseling, Christian Education, Preaching, Worship, and World Missions. For this reason, representative course work toward the major in the area of the student’s choosing always should be done by the student in preparation for the exam.

III. With regard to credits earned in the Graduate School at Concordia Seminary, the student must complete at least half the work in the major and half the work in the minor in courses numbered 800-899.

IV. Before completing 18 credits in the S.T.M., the student shall give satisfactory evidence of a reading knowledge of at least one modern foreign language other than the student’s native language and relevant to the secondary literature in the student’s field of study. Ordinarily this language shall be German, or if the department of the major approves, Latin. Arrangements for demonstrating language proficiency are made with the Office of the Graduate School. Students who fail to demonstrate this language proficiency by the end of the first year will register for a Preparation Fee (see the Financial Information section of the Academic Catalog) and will not be allowed to continue regular coursework until the proficiency has been demonstrated.

V. The S.T.M. is conducted according to two options—the exam route and the thesis route (see “Requirements for Options” below). While the S.T.M. degree does require a certain number of credit hours, there is not a specific configuration of courses that must be taken. S.T.M. students should seek graduate advising through the Office of the Graduate School. It is important to observe that the examination option allows a student to take one course outside his major or minor, as well as to include up to six graduate hours derived either from transfer of courses from another accredited institution or from independent study courses (whether research [899] or extensive reading [895]). These opportunities are not allowed in the thesis option. It is also important to note that the S.T.M. program carries no residency requirement, as does the Ph.D.

VI. With the guidance and approval of the director of the Graduate School, students in Concordia Seminary’s M.Div. program may seek dual credit toward both the M.Div. and an S.T.M. for as many as three of their 400-level courses. When three 400-level courses have been completed for dual credit, students may then also apply for permission from the Advanced Studies Committee to take in each quarter of their final M.Div. year one 800-level course also for dual credit.

Student Status

International students must maintain full-time status as a condition of their class F-1 visa. Students in the S.T.M. program maintain full-time status if they satisfy one of the following conditions:

- Are registered for at least two courses (six credit hours) per quarter (excluding summer); or
- Are registered for and engaged in full-time research and writing of the master’s thesis; or
- Are engaged in full-time preparation for an S.T.M. comprehensive exam and registered for and paid the S.T.M. examination fee. A student may pursue an overload only by permission of the director of the Graduate School.
Requirements for Options
Subject to departmental approval, the student selects one of the following options:

Thesis Option
I. The thesis option involves the student in less course work but more writing. The student may register for the thesis at any time, but, after one year from the date of registration, an extension fee will be due if the thesis has not been completed. Accordingly, it is generally advisable to register for the thesis during or immediately after the quarter in which the last course work has been taken. If the thesis option is selected, the thesis may be submitted at any time, but it must be submitted on a specific schedule to ensure graduation and participation in commencement. A total of 27 hours must be earned in a major (nine of them by writing an acceptable thesis), and nine hours must be earned in a minor. NOTE: Students whose GRE analytical writing score is less than 5.5 may be required to take a remedial writing course before registering for the thesis. Credit for the course is not applicable to the degree.

II. The student normally registers for the thesis in the quarter after coursework is completed.

III. The work of the thesis proceeds according to the guidelines specified in the S.T.M. Thesis Procedures document on the Graduate School’s Portal site.

Examination Option
All degrees in the Graduate School have the option of examinations in various fields. A regular schedule of dates and times for on campus testing is published for each academic year (copies of this form are obtained from the Office of the Graduate School). A request to take an examination must be submitted to the Graduate School via a request form at least two weeks before a given examination date in order to allow sufficient time to prepare the examination. Special arrangements for off-campus testing, with appropriate supervision, can be made upon approval of the director of the Graduate School. Comprehensive exams are normally taken during the last quarter of course work or after all course work has been completed.

I. A total of 24 hours must be earned in a major, and 12 hours must be earned in a minor.

II. The student may take one 800-level course outside the major and minor and count the hours toward the major or minor.

III. The student’s program ordinarily may include up to six credit hours transferred from another graduate program, approved in advance by the director of the Graduate School, or earned either by taking Concordia Seminary extension courses or by completing approved research (895) or extensive readings (899) projects; 12 credit hours may be transferred from Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne, Indiana.

IV. In the exceptional circumstance of studying under Concordia Seminary professors in a country outside North America, the student’s program may include up to 12 credit hours earned by research (895) or extensive readings (899) projects.

V. The student must pass an examination in the major, with the department of the major developing the examination and determining its form. There is no examination in the minor field.

VI. In order to participate in commencement, the examination must be taken and passed by March 15.

CONFERRAL OF DEGREE
Time Limit and Reinstatement
All options require the equivalent of one calendar year of fulltime study in theology beyond the M.Div. degree, although S.T.M. students are not required to be full-time students. Students are expected to complete all requirements within six years of the completion of the first course credited to the S.T.M. degree. The files of students who are unable to complete the work in this time period will be retired. Students who fail to register for two successive quarters or fail to make academic progress for more than two years will be retired. Those wishing to be reinstated may request this of the Advanced Studies Committee. Reinstatement, if granted, is valid for two calendar years and may be made only once.
DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY

Purpose
The purpose of the Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) program is to prepare scholars to be future leaders for the church in both academic and nonacademic settings by developing and establishing their competency in a chosen field through classroom performance as students and teachers, through private study and preparation, and through the production of publishable written work that makes an original contribution in their field. The Ph.D. is the specialist research doctorate, which is designed to train people at the highest level in a chosen field so that they may give leadership in the church and in the world at the highest level in both academic and nonacademic settings.

Unlike the M.A. and S.T.M. degrees, the Ph.D. is a more variegated degree, comprised of classroom work, independent reading, multiple language and subject examinations, teaching in the classroom, and the preparation of serious, publishable work. The key to the program is the student’s personal advisor, assigned at the beginning of the program. This advisor will guide the student in the selection of courses, assist with exam preparation, help to make arrangements for teaching experiences, and, normally, serve as the dissertation supervisor. He therefore functions as the student’s Doktorvater in many respects, i.e., he is much more than the supervisor of the final written work.

ADMISSION

Eligibility
The following are prerequisites for admission into the Ph.D. program: a master’s-level theological degree (M.Div. or master’s in theological studies) with a grade point average of 3.50 or above and 21 quarter hours applicable to the specific theological field in which the student plans to concentrate (e.g., Reformation Studies), as well as demonstrated competency in any foreign languages and passing grades in any entrance examinations as may be required by a given department (for the Theology and Culture concentration, the 21 prerequisite quarter hours at the master’s level may be a mix of work done in Practical Theology, Systematic Theology, Historical Theology, and/or Exegetical Theology). Each department will determine the level of course work from the master’s degree program submitted in the application that is expected. All students must have or demonstrate proficiency in the English language and in English composition. Those failing to demonstrate a sufficient competency in English composition may be required to do entry-level work in this area.

Application
Application forms are available from the CSL website. The application deadline is December 7. An application is not complete until it includes all of the following:

• Completed Application Form
• Application Fee of $50
• Two Letters of Recommendation
• A third letter of recommendation from the last educational institution attended is required for applicants who have not earned a degree at Concordia Seminary, St. Louis.
• Official Report of GRE Scores (scores older than five years will not be accepted)
  NOTE: Students whose GRE analytical writing score is less than 5.5 will be required to successfully complete a graduate writing lab in their first year of the program. Credit for the course is not applicable to the degree.
• Official Transcripts from each college/university and seminary previously attended
• International students must obtain an official report of TOEFL scores with a minimum score of 233 (CBT), 90 91 (IBT) or 577 (PBT).
• All applicants must submit a brief theological essay on a topic of their choosing, to demonstrate their ability to work with English in an academic context (see “Eligibility” above).

CURRICULUM

Program Advisor
An advisor, who serves as Doktorvater, will be assigned by the department of the student’s program upon entry. This advisor will help in the selection of course work, with exam preparation, and with the first development of the dissertation. Normally, the advisor will also serve as the student’s dissertation supervisor.
Course Work
The student will normally take two 800 level courses for credit each quarter, plus one audit or one teaching assistant experience (applicants wishing to begin as part time students will be required to begin their work in the S.T.M). During the summer months, courses may be taken, but, at that time, work on reading and language acquisition probably will be heavier than at other times of the year. Ph.D. students will select their courses in consultation with their advisor, who helps them to determine their program. In the actual registration process, Ph.D. students have priority, especially for those courses mandated for their programs. The date and time of registration will be announced by the Registrar’s office each quarter.

The student must complete a minimum of 54 hours beyond the master’s-level theological degree, with a cumulative curriculum grade point average of at least 3.5 (on a 4.0 scale). These will comprise:

I. A total of 36 credits, which equal 36 quarter hours of classroom work for credit at the 800 level, generally, two courses per quarter for two years. Individual courses will be credited toward degree requirements only when completed with a grade of “B-” or better. A student whose cumulative grade point average falls below 3.5 (“A-”) will be placed on academic probation. The probationary status serves as a warning that the student is not making satisfactory progress and, unless the quality of work improves, will be subject to dismissal from the Graduate School. Ordinarily, a student whose cumulative grade point average remains below 3.5 for two consecutive quarters will be dismissed.

II. A total of 18 hours of additional coursework, normally in the following mix:
A. 12 hours of course audit (four courses), preferably at the 400 level or higher;
B. 6 hours of TA work (two courses), assisting a professor in an appropriate course or teaching a lower level course, as appropriate.

Generally, course/class work will comprise two for credit courses plus either one audit course or a TA assignment per quarter, for a total of three formal obligations per quarter. Up to nine units of credit may be accepted by transfer from another program with the approval of the director of the Graduate School. For those who currently hold an S.T.M degree, due consideration will be given for the courses they already have taken that are congruent with the requirements of the Ph.D.

Each department sets its own requirements for language competencies and comprehensive field examinations. Arrangement is made to take these examinations through the Office of the Graduate School (Ph.D. students in the Department of Historical Theology should contact the chairman to obtain current information on the procedures for examination in that department). Students who fail to demonstrate language proficiencies by established deadlines will register for a Preparation Fee (see the Financial Information section of the Academic Catalog) and will not be allowed to continue regular coursework until the proficiency has been demonstrated. The current department requirements are:

I. Exegetical (Biblical Studies)
   A. Languages
      1. Hebrew: upon entrance
      2. Greek: upon entrance
      3. Aramaic: proficiency demonstrated within the first two years of the program
      4. German: proficiency demonstrated within the first year of the program
      5. Another language relevant to the student’s research and course of study within the first two years of the program
   B. Examinations
      1. Core Comprehensives—comprehensive written examinations in both the Old and New Testaments, based upon reading lists developed by the Exegetical Department (and taken in association with the Issues Seminars; see further below) and including translation of Biblical texts (a
II. Systematic (Doctrinal Theology)
A. Languages
1. German: within the first year of the program
2. Latin: within the first year of the program
3. Another language relevant to the student's research and course of study within the first two years of the program
B. Examinations
1. Core Comprehensive—a comprehensive written examination based upon the departmental reading list

III. Historical (Reformation Studies or Modern World)
A. Languages
1. German: within the first year of the program (in Modern World a substitute is possible within the approval of the department)
2. Latin: within the first year of the program (Ref. Studies only)
3. Another language relevant to the student's research and course of study within the first two years of the program
B. Examinations
1. A comprehensive oral examination based upon a reading list developed by the student and doctoral advisor

IV. Practical (Theology and Culture)
A. Languages

Basic Ph.D. Patterns: Areas of Concentration and Usual Required Courses
A student works in one area (e.g., Doctrinal Theology) as an area of concentration. A minimum of 36 credit hours of for-credit course work completed at the 800 level is required of all students. The courses either required for each of the concentrations or representing a usual orientation are listed below.

Cross-Departmental
(taken by all concentrations)
E800 Problems in Hermeneutics
S894 Creeds and Confessions
H894 History of Philosophy and Worldviews

Biblical Studies Concentration
(the following are required)
E804 Advanced Reading of the Old and New Testaments
EO802 Old Testament Issues I
EO803 Old Testament Issues II
EN802 New Testament Issues I
EN803 New Testament Issues II
Two Old Testament and two New Testament courses

Doctrinal Theology
(the following is a sampling of the courses that students might take)
S850 Studies in the Theology of Luther
S870 Seminar in Contemporary Theology
S80X or S81X Locus Seminar
S80X or S81X Locus Seminar
S82X Seminar in the Lutheran Confessions
S8XX Figures in Contemporary Theology

Reformation Studies/Modern World
(the following is a sampling of the courses that students might take)
H830 Luther: A Study of His Writings
H840 Interpretations of the Reformation
H841 Reformation and Humanism
H842 Reformation and Education
H804 Early Church Fathers
S850 Studies in the Theology of Luther
S82X Seminar in the Lutheran Confessions

Theology and Culture
(the following is a sampling of the courses that students might take)
P879 Christ and Culture
P871 Cultural Anthropology in Christian Perspective
P876  Culture and Communication Theory
P841  Liturgy and Culture
P8XX  Ethics
(the following topic areas are also often represented)
  Christian Education Missions
  Contemporary Theology
  Doctrinal Theology (locus)
  Luther or Reformation

Student Status and Classification
International students must maintain full-time status as a condition of their class F1 visa. Students in the Ph.D. program maintain full-time status if they satisfy one of the following conditions:

- Are registered for at least two 800-level courses (six credit hours) per quarter (excluding summer);
- Are registered for and engaged in full-time preparation for Ph.D. comprehensive examinations;
- Are engaged in full-time research and writing of the doctoral dissertation.

The current Ph.D. program involves a two-year residency requirement. This requirement is especially important for those students who have not obtained a degree from Concordia Seminary, St. Louis. The residency required of those who have obtained an S.T.M. degree at Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, will take into account their previous residency on this campus.

Graduate Student
Students admitted to the Ph.D. program enter as undifferentiated graduate students until they have completed 18 credit hours in the program. Graduate students in this category may choose to work toward an S.T.M., with its lower requirements, and, upon completion, may apply for admission to the Ph.D. program.

Doctoral Student
The Graduate School will undertake a review of undifferentiated graduate students in the Ph.D. program who have completed 18 credit hours to determine their continuation in or termination from the program. A positive decision allows the student to enter the Ph.D. program proper, and the student is reclassified as a doctoral student. A negative decision prohibits the student from continuing in the Ph.D. program, but offers the option of completing the S.T.M. degree.

Doctoral Candidate
After the dissertation proposal has been accepted, doctoral candidate status is obtained by the student.

Preparation for Comprehensive Examinations
Comprehensive exams for the Ph.D. degree are taken after all course work has been completed (except the Biblical Studies concentration). All core (departmental) comprehensive exams must be passed before submitting a dissertation prospectus and before taking a research comprehensive. The dissertation prospectus also normally will be submitted before the research comprehensive exam is taken.

Dissertation
A dissertation worthy of publication must be produced, beginning with a prospectus and followed by a proposal. Specific details on the nature and timing of the steps involved in the production of the dissertation are available from the Graduate School section of the Seminary’s Portal site.

Time Limit and Reinstatement
Students are expected to complete all requirements, including the dissertation, within seven years from the time the first course is credited toward the degree. The files of students who are unable to complete the work in this time period will be retired. Students who fail to register for two successive quarters or fail to make academic progress will be retired. Those wishing to be reinstated may request this of the Advanced Studies Committee. Reinstatement, if granted, is valid for two calendar years and may be made only once.
ADMINISTRATIVE POLICIES

Privilege of Enrollment

Enrollment at Concordia Seminary is a privilege and is subject at all times to termination or suspension by action of the dean or director of the academic program in which the student is enrolled. Such action may be based upon failure by the student to meet and maintain academic standards prescribed by the faculty or upon conduct on the part of the student that is inconsistent with or detracts from the spiritual, moral, and social character that the faculty and the Board of Regents desire for the Seminary community.

The provision of inaccurate or misleading information by a student at the time of application or while enrolled shall be considered grounds for dismissal.

Termination or suspension for academic reasons will be determined by the dean or director of the academic program in which the student is enrolled in consultation with the registrar. In cases of termination or suspension for other than academic reasons, the student may appeal in writing through the Office of the President to the faculty within 10 days, for consideration at the next regular meeting of the faculty. If no understanding is reached, the student, or the student together with any interested faculty member, may appeal to the president of the Seminary for his decision. His decision will be conclusive and final.

The president, if he desires, may appoint a reviewing committee of faculty members not previously involved with the case. They will bring their findings to the faculty for review and decision. The decision of the faculty will be conclusive and final.

Any student applying for admission to the Seminary shall be deemed to have read and understood the terms of this notice and, if accepted, will be subject to them.

ATTENDANCE

Students should recognize that, during their enrollment in Concordia Seminary, their primary vocation is student (second only to their baptismal and familial callings). Attendance and full participation is expected in curricular activities, including, for example, classes (including activities which are assigned in lieu of regularly scheduled class periods), orientation, meetings related to field education, vicarage/internship assignment, and placement. Instructors may treat absences as “excused,” but are not obliged to do so. Even when an instructor treats an absence as excused, students remain responsible for preparation and timely submission of all assignments.

NONDISCRIMINATION POLICY

It is the policy of Concordia Seminary: (1) not to exclude, expel, limit, or otherwise discriminate against an individual seeking admission as a student or an individual enrolled as a student in the terms, conditions, and privileges of Concordia Seminary because of race, color, or national or ethnic origin; and (2) not to exclude from, or otherwise discriminate against, in admission or access to its programs and activities, on the basis of disability, age, or sex, any person who meets the academic and technical standards requisite to admission or participation in its education programs and activities. The vice president for financial planning and administration of Concordia Seminary is its coordinator of compliance with U.S. Department of Health and Human Services regulations concerning discrimination on the basis of disability or sex.

These nondiscriminatory policies in no way limit or restrict the established policy of Concordia Seminary of limiting admission, or giving preference on some occasions, to an applicant in one of the following categories:

1. An applicant from any member congregation of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod (“Synod”) or an applicant who is a child of a person who is from any congregation of the Synod, or
2. An applicant from a congregation of a Lutheran church body other than the Synod or an applicant who is a child of a person from a congregation of a Lutheran church body other than the Synod.

In addition, the Synod and Concordia Seminary, as part of the Synod, adhere to the religious and doctrinal belief and practice that women may not be ordained as ministers in the Synod. Accordingly, women students or applicants are not admitted to academic programs leading to the ordained ministry (Master of Divinity, Doctor of Ministry). Women may be admitted to the Master of Arts, the Master of Arts in Deaconess Studies, the Master of Sacred Theology, and the Doctor of Philosophy degree programs.

Concordia Seminary reserves the right at any time to refuse admission or readmission, place on disciplinary or academic probation, suspend, or dismiss students for cause.

FAMILY EDUCATION RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT OF 1974 (FERPA)
The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), with which Concordia Seminary intends to comply fully, was designed to protect the privacy of educational records, to establish the right of students to inspect and review their educational records, and to provide guidelines for the correction of inaccurate or misleading data through informal and formal hearings. Students also have the right to file complaints with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act Office concerning alleged failures by Concordia Seminary to comply with the act.

Concordia Seminary has adopted a policy that explains in detail the procedures used for compliance with the provisions of the act. Copies of the policy may be obtained from the registrar.

ACADEMIC GRIEVANCE POLICY
Concerns or complaints about academic policies or procedures are under the responsibility of the vice president for academic affairs, in consultation with the department chairmen, registrar, faculty, and the deans of ministerial formation, as appropriate.

Specific concerns relative to course instruction should be discussed first with the instructor. If an issue cannot be resolved, his department chairman should be consulted. Final adjudication of any grievance will be made by the vice president for academic affairs.

In the case of an unauthorized withdrawal after the third week, the grade of “F” is recorded automatically, and the hours are counted in computing the grade point average. Ordinarily, a student may not withdraw from a course after the seventh week of a quarter. Forms for a withdrawal are available in the Registrar's office.</td>
</tbody>
GRADE CHANGES
Grade changes should be effected only in cases where an instructor becomes aware that work submitted by a student during the term in which a course was conducted should have received a different evaluation. Instructors may consent, but are not obliged, to receive work after the conclusion of the term in which a course was conducted, which they may evaluate and, upon such evaluation, record a change-of-grade in the registrar’s office. Under all circumstances, grade changes must be recorded by the last day of the term after the term in which the course was conducted.

INCOMPLETES
An instructor may record an initial grade of “Incomplete” (“I”) when the instructor determines that events or circumstances beyond the student’s control have prevented the student from submitting course requirements completely and on time (where “on time” means on published or announced due dates, or “by the last day of the term”). When an “I” has been recorded, it must be cleared by the end of the sixth week after the end of the term in which the course was taken; after that time the “I” becomes an “F.” (NOTE: The registrar confirms the entry of any “I” by communicating with the instructor and the student, with a reminder of the due date for clearing the “I.”) Under all circumstances, the clearing of “I” grades must be completed by the last day of the term after the term in which the course was conducted. “I” grades are counted as “F” grades in GPA computations. A student with an incomplete in a course, which is a prerequisite for another course, may not enroll in a subsequent course until at least the term after the term in which a satisfactory grade has been posted for the prerequisite course.

REFUNDS
A student who drops a course or withdraws officially or unofficially from a course or from the Seminary prior to the end of the seventh week of a quarter (or the equivalent time period in the Summer Quarter) shall receive a refund. Page 20 describes procedures for withdrawing from the Seminary.

If the withdrawal is on the first day of classes in a quarter, the refund will be the greater of either 95 percent of the charges assessed the student or $100 less than the assessed charges. If the withdrawal is after the first day of classes and before the end of the second week, the refund will be 90 percent of the assessed charges. Refunds for the third through seventh weeks will be, respectively, 70 percent, 60 percent, 50 percent, 40 percent, and 30 percent of the assessed charges. There is no refund after the seventh week of the quarter. Refunds will be allocated in accordance with federal regulations. In the case of the withdrawal of a veteran, a refund will be made in accordance with Veterans Administration regulations. In no case will a refund be less than what state and federal laws require.

CHEATING AND PLAGIARISM
Cheating of any kind, including plagiarism, is considered unethical conduct, inconsistent with the habits of a Christian student and may be grounds for immediate dismissal.

ENROLLMENT VERIFICATION
Student Loan Deferments
Concordia Seminary is a participant in the National Student Loan Clearinghouse (NSLC). Student enrollment status is reported to the Clearinghouse each academic quarter, and the Clearinghouse, in turn, reports status to lenders. Because this process is executed on a regular basis, it ordinarily eliminates the need for students to obtain endorsement of deferment forms.

Other Verification Requirements
In response to a written request and authorization by a student, the Office of the Registrar will prepare a letter to report a student’s enrollment status.

TRANSCRIPTS
The Office of the Registrar will prepare, upon written request and authorization from the student, an official transcript of a student’s academic work at Concordia Seminary. The applicable fees for transcripts are published on page 71 of this catalog.

NOTE: Transcripts of academic work from institutions other than Concordia Seminary, which were obtained for the purpose of admission to Concordia Seminary, may not be released to any third party.
REGISTRATION PROCEDURES
Registration
Registration for returning students is conducted online each quarter (see the Academic Calendar, page 6). Students are issued “time tickets” on the basis of program and classification (I-Year, II-Year, etc., as applicable) which establish the day and time at which a student may log on to the Web registration system and enroll in classes. Students should consult their respective program office (for example, Deaconess Studies, Graduate School) to determine whether any specific permissions are required by those offices for registration.

New students will register for their first fall quarter in accordance with the orientation schedule. (NOTE: Students who enrolled in pre-seminary courses during the summer remain “new” until their first fall registration.) New M.Div. and Alternate Route students are registered automatically, on the basis of their ELCE completions. New M.Deac. students should consult Deaconess Studies, and new graduate school students should consult the Graduate School for academic advising prior to registration.

Registration Changes and Registration Change Fees
All registration changes must be initiated in and coordinated through the registrar’s office (Registration Change Forms are available from the office). During the time between the registration period and the end of the new term’s first week, students may drop courses, and/or add courses if seats are available, without a registration change fee so long as they have initiated the quarter’s registration during the registration period. If a student does not initiate a registration during the designated registration period at all, the student will be charged a $30 late registration fee. (NOTE: This change-fee free period does not affect the computation of tuition refunds; see page 71). During the second and third weeks of a regular quarter (summer terms follow a more detailed schedule), students may drop courses with the authorization of the registrar. Courses dropped during the first three weeks of a term will not appear on transcripts.

During the fourth through the seventh weeks of a regular quarter, students must obtain the authorization of the instructor and of the director of the student’s program, in order to drop a course. (NOTE: The process is not complete until the transaction is recorded by the registrar’s office.) Courses dropped during this period will appear on the transcript with a grade of “W.”

After the end of the seventh week of a regular quarter, students may not drop courses except in extraordinary circumstances. All registration changes must be coordinated through the registrar’s office. Courses for which no withdrawal authorization has been obtained will be treated as failed—a grade of “F” will be recorded.

AUDITING
Students may enroll in courses as auditors, prior to the end of the first week of classes, if they meet the prerequisites for the course(s), and as space allows.

A student may not take a course for credit after auditing it. A student may not audit a course in order to meet the prerequisites or requirements of a program. A student may not audit a theological language course.

Because a special policy governs audits of D.Min. offerings, prospective D.Min. auditors should contact the director of the D.Min. program.

AUDITING OF CLASSES BY SPOUSE OR FIANCEÉ
With the consent of the instructor and the approval of the registrar, M.Div. and Certificate program students may invite their spouses or fiancées to attend one course per quarter with them as auditors, at a reduced auditor’s fee of $50. An application for such audits may be obtained from the Office of the Registrar. Restrictions on approval of such audits may include, but are not limited to, class size and the nature of prerequisites (especially language prerequisites).

Spouses of graduate students may audit one course per quarter under the normal audit prerequisite rules, with the instructor’s permission, at a reduced auditor’s fee of $50.
SUMMER QUARTER
Each summer, Concordia Seminary offers two nine-week terms (one for the Biblical languages and another for select first-year M.Div. courses), two terms of four weeks each, and four short terms of 10 class days each. During a nine-week term, four courses may be taken. During a four-week term, two courses may be taken. During a short term, only one course may be taken, except that D.Min. students may take both a seminar and a course during the same term. Courses may not be taken in both a short term and another term at the same time. As appropriate, credits earned may be applied to M.A., M.Deac., M.Div., D.Min., S.T.M., or Ph.D. programs or to the Certificate program. Qualified students who do not wish to seek a degree may register as special students for individual courses. Credit and non-credit workshops and institutes are available at various times.

SUMMER QUARTER ENROLLMENT
Students of Concordia Seminary are not obliged to enroll in summer quarters. There are, however, certain course sequences for which the Seminary offers summer quarter courses so that students can make better academic progress than they will if they do not enroll in summer terms, e.g., pre-seminary biblical language courses; the sequence of biblical hermeneutics and the first course in homiletics; the courses in the Lutheran Confessions, which are prerequisite to the sequence of systematics courses—all of these sequences are critical to academic readiness for vicarage at the end of an M.Div. student’s second year. Students who enroll in summer quarter classes are obliged, however, to the same policies on attendance and participation as described under “Attendance.”

CONTINUING EDUCATION
In addition to the academic courses and programs, the Seminary provides continuing education experiences for clergy, other professional church workers, and laypersons. Such programs seek to fulfill the aims of Concordia Seminary:

I. To provide instruction and experiences to equip persons for service in specialized fields.
II. To offer training in theology.
III. To provide opportunity for advanced theological study and research.

The Seminary awards Continuing Education Units (CEUs) for educational experiences other than the academic courses and programs. One CEU is equivalent to 10 contact hours in a learning experience. Although CEUs are not academic credit, they do give evidence to the student and to his superiors that he has accomplished significant goals in continuing education.

Included among the short-term workshops, seminars, and other continuing education programs offered by the Seminary are the following: Lay Bible Institute, Adult Choir Workshop, Theological Symposium, summer off-campus workshops, and LutherHostel. The director of continuing education and parish services will provide information on all programs of continuing education (special lecture series, workshops, institutes, seminars, etc.). The director also is responsible for assisting, when he is invited to do so, in the design and implementation of off-campus programs.
SPIRITUAL LIFE AND WORSHIP
The spiritual life and growth of both students and faculty is of primary concern at Concordia Seminary. The Board of Regents has declared that the president’s call to provide pastoral care for the Seminary community entails responsibility for the proper administration of the means of grace, including the celebration of Holy Communion. In order to provide such pastoral care, the president has enlisted the aid of other ordained ministers on the faculty. These men form the pastoral staff and have primary responsibility for policies concerning campus worship and the spiritual life of the entire community. The dean of the chapel assists the president and the pastoral staff in all matters pertaining to campus worship.

Students are encouraged to seek personal consultations with fellow students and with the campus chaplain, who is available for pastoral counsel, for confession and absolution, and for general conversation. Every student is encouraged to take responsibility for, and plan, private devotional study on a daily basis as a critical element in personal spiritual life. Dormitory devotions, as well as family meditations for married couples, also are encouraged. All Alternate Route, M.Div., and M.Deac. students are affiliated with a local synodical congregation in the resident field education program.

MARRIAGE
Upon his or her decision to marry, a student shall notify the dean of ministerial formation, who will assist the student in obtaining counsel that will help the student and his or her fiancée prepare for marriage with the fullest understanding and most careful preparation, giving appropriate attention to the student’s vocational objectives and Seminary responsibilities.

RESIDENTIAL LIFE
Dormitories
The Seminary provides dormitory housing for single male students. These facilities offer three types of accommodations: double occupancy room, regular single occupancy room, and large single occupancy room. Single students in Ministerial Formation programs are required to live in dormitory housing unless given special permission by the director of student services. Dorm housing applications should be sent to the Residential Services Office and postmarked by March 31 of the current year.

Dormitory rooms are furnished with a desk, chair, bookshelf, dresser or chest of drawers, wardrobe or closet, and bed with mattress. Students furnish their own pillows, linens, blankets, and desk lamps.

Students living in dormitories are required to participate in the meal plan. The food service staff makes choices available for students with special dietary needs. Meal service is not available during breaks.

Coin-operated laundry facilities are located conveniently on campus.

To assist new seminarians in assimilating into the Seminary community, second- or fourth-year dorm students serve as dorm counselors. They are responsible for facilitating group devotions and acting as liaisons with the Seminary departments.

Married Student Housing
The Seminary owns apartment units for married students. Each apartment has a stove and refrigerator but is otherwise unfurnished. Each unit has a small storage area assigned to that unit. All buildings have laundry hookups in the basement. All the apartments offer comfortable and convenient accommodations for a married couple and their family. There is a “no pets policy” for Seminary-owned apartments. Rental rates are competitive with the local market (see page 71 for details).

Married student housing applications should be sent to the Residential Services Office and postmarked by March 31.

Off-Campus Housing
The communities surrounding Concordia Seminary contain a number of privately-owned apartment units to meet a wide range of needs and preferences. The Life Transitions Coordinator maintains a referral service listing information about apartments frequently rented by students and about other private housing facilities as they are available. The Life Transitions Coordinator works to develop and maintain lines of communication with property owners who handle Seminary students appropriately.

FOOD BANK
The Food Bank is offered to all students and their families. The cost is free for married and single students alike. The only “payment” asked is to write thank-you notes to those who have donated and to volunteer some time helping out with the Food Bank.

RE-SELL IT SHOP
The Re-Sell It Shop is an on-campus store where students may purchase new and used clothing at minimal cost. Students also may purchase household items such as furniture, appliances, books, and pictures at greatly reduced prices.

HEALTH

Student Insurance
The Seminary Board of Regents requires each full-time student to verify current health care coverage in a Group health plan. The Board also encourages students to secure adequate health insurance coverage for their dependents. Students classified as non-resident aliens are required by the Board to have group health insurance coverage for their dependents. Coverage is provided by enrollment in the Seminary’s health plan.

Students who do not have current health care coverage in a qualifying group insurance plan will, ordinarily, be enrolled in the Seminary’s health plan. The Seminary has partnered with Concordia Plan Services to obtain health coverage through Anthem Blue Cross/Blue Shield of Minnesota. Coverage under this plan is worldwide, and includes dental and vision and other important benefits.

New students must enroll between August 15 and September 15, 2011, for coverage in the 2011-12 academic year (September 1, 2011, through September 1, 2012). Students may also purchase family coverage through the Seminary plan. Forms and brochures are available in the Health and Wellness Center, or online at www.concordiaplans.org.

Students who choose not to enroll in the Seminary plan must provide proof of current enrollment in a comparable group health insurance plan or, if eligible, in a plan through their parents’ or spouse’s employer, or military or other government agencies.

Health and Wellness Center
The Concordia Seminary Health and Wellness Center is committed to creating an atmosphere of wellness by promoting physical, emotional, and spiritual health. The Health and Wellness Center is maintained for the campus community under the supervision of the Seminary physician. Clinic hours with the physician are scheduled one day a week. Appointments can be made by calling the Health and Wellness Center at 314-505-7205. Students and their families may see the doctor free of charge. The center stocks some medications, both prescription and over the counter, which are given out free of charge.

Students, families, and staff are invited to participate in all activities sponsored by the Health and Wellness Center. The parish nurse can provide health education and counseling, as well as referrals within the medical community.

Personal Coaching and Leadership Development
The Personal Coaching and Leadership Development program provides students with the opportunity to receive personal coaching for pastoral/diakonal leadership development. Students consult with the advisor on personal growth and leadership development regarding strategies and resources to assist them in refining their ministry skills. Each student develops and implements a skill development program designed to meet his/her personal and professional needs. Resources available for the leadership development program include assessment instruments, personal coaching interviews, and skill development groups.
STUDENT ASSOCIATION/STUDENT GOVERNMENT
Every full-time student at the Seminary (M.Div., M.Deac., Certificate, and graduate) is a member of the Student Association. The association, working through its elected representatives, provides a framework that allows student initiative and energy to make the most constructive contribution possible for developing and sustaining the Seminary as a community of faith and learning. To hold office in the association, a student must maintain a satisfactory academic record (minimum grade point average of 2.5).

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS
Concordia Seminary welcomes students from around the world into its several degree programs. Special requirements pertaining to international admissions are published in the applicable degree program sections of this catalog. The director of academic programming is the Primary Designated School Official (PDSO) for all matters concerning visas for international students and, if applicable, their dependents. The international student coordinator arranges campus sponsors for international students and their families to help them locate and become accustomed to shopping and other activities that are part of the acculturation process.

MUSIC
Various musical groups serve the worship on campus, in both daily services and special services, and participate in concerts. The Seminary Chorus is a group of male voices; it rehearses once a week, with additional sectional rehearsal. The Pro Musica Sacra, a group of mixed voices, rehearses at a time that permits faculty, staff, and wives of students to be involved. There also are two instrumental groups, the Brass Ensemble and the Handbell Choir.

ATHLETICS
The Seminary program of athletics has three components. First, there is the intramural program, in which most students participate. Intramural clubs sponsor about 40 different athletic leagues, activities, and tournaments. The program provides an excellent opportunity for weekly interaction among students, faculty, staff, and families. Second, there is a voluntary program of daily exercise and health maintenance. The weight room and other facilities are open daily approximately eight hours each day. Everyone is encouraged to walk/jog, lift weights, play tennis, etc., on a regular basis for health maintenance. Third, there is the intercollegiate program. The Seminary sponsors teams in basketball, golf, cycling, and tennis. To participate in intercollegiate sports, a student must be full-time (at least nine credit hours per quarter), maintain a satisfactory academic and field education record (minimum grade point average of 2.5), and be gainfully employed for no more than 15 hours per week. The Seminary also co-sponsors soccer, cross country, and baseball as club sports. All activities are under the supervision of the athletic director.

SEMINARY WOMEN
Women are an important part of the Seminary community and are cordially invited to participate in community life. Many events on the campus calendar are planned especially for Seminary women: Seminary Women’s Association activities, Seminary Women’s classes, choral and instrumental groups, intramural activities, family nights in the dining hall, and many other routine and special occasions. All of these activities provide women with the opportunity to know each other, the students on campus, and the Seminary faculty and staff. Women are encouraged to participate in as many Seminary-sponsored events as time, energy, and family responsibilities allow. Involvement in campus activities can be a real blessing to a family’s stay at Concordia Seminary.
CONCORDIA SEMINARY LIBRARY
(Ludwig E. Fuerbringer Hall)
As the research and study center of the Seminary, the library provides a wide range of bibliographic and reference services to the campus community. While the primary thrust of the operations is to render service and assistance to students and faculty, parish pastors and other professional church workers also benefit from the materials/services provided by the library.

The library combines modern technology with a strong traditional approach to scholarly research. Residing on a PC-based network are the library catalog, optical disc (CD-ROM) databases, and Internet links to various academic databases on the World Wide Web. The online catalog, with highly effective keyword searching capability, provides quick access to holdings and location information of library materials. Offsite researchers have international access to the catalog via a telnet connection on the library’s Web page. Materials in print, audio, video, and digital formats assist students in gaining knowledge and skills for ministry in the new millennium.

The collection numbers more than 270,000 volumes. Included are the personal libraries of many of the founding fathers of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod and its theological professors: C.F.W. Walther, George Stoeckhardt, F. Pieper, E.A. Krauss, and others. Alumni and other donors have given unusual and rare materials to the library, e.g., the Hemmeter collection, which contains over 1,200 dissertations and pamphlets published before 1800, and the incunabula donated by C.A. Graebner.

The library pursues an active acquisitions program that includes the purchase of current publications, rare books, and special collections. As a result, the growing collection has a much larger percentage of rare books and research material than is usual for a library of this size. The book collection is supplemented by pamphlets, non-book media, and an outstanding periodical collection of over 2,200 titles. The library subscribes to about 1,000 journals, supplemented by many more available full-text online.

The collection provides substantial resources for research in most areas of theology and is particularly strong in the fields of New Testament and systematic theology. Reformation history is well-represented. Basic sets include Migne’s Patrologiae, Mansi’s 53-volume minutes of the church councils, the Corpus Reformatorum, and the Weimar edition of Luther’s works (printed and online). A growing collection of Reformation-era pamphlets (Flugschriften) on microfiche complements one of the best 16th century rare book collections in the nation.

While the library’s holdings highlight the history and doctrine of the Lutheran church, they also provide extensive research materials for the study of ecumenism and individual denominations, e.g., Mormonism. Special collections in hymnology, liturgics, the Peasants’ War, classical philology, and other areas assure the interested student the possibility of studying Christianity against the background of the broader stream of general culture and history. A significant collection of music rounds out the holdings. The library also maintains Concordia Seminary’s art collection, which includes Christian paintings, sculpture, icons, crosses, missiological pieces and other artifacts. Displays in the library entryway and the second floor gallery change seasonally.

Ludwig E. Fuerbringer Hall has the capacity to house 250,000 volumes and to seat 250 people, providing study space for the professional theological student and research areas for advanced students and scholars.

Complementary resources are available at Covenant, Eden-Webster, and Kenrick libraries, as well as St. Louis University, Washington University, and the public libraries of St. Louis City and County.

CENTER FOR REFORMATION RESEARCH
The Center for Reformation Research seeks to stimulate and support Reformation research through services to scholars, resource materials, bibliographical aids, and publications. Its holdings include microfilm and microcards of 16th century works, plus three major manuscript collections. Its reference works include books on bibliography, paleography, and other auxiliary disciplines of historical studies. The Summer Paleography Institute brings university and seminary students from the United States and Canada for a two-week seminar series. The Center traditionally has enjoyed close personal and organizational ties with the Seminary and strongly encourages both students and faculty to use its resources. The center’s holdings are housed and cataloged in the Seminary library and may be opened by appointment. Robert Rosin, M.Div., Ph.D., is the center’s executive director.

INSTITUTE FOR MISSION STUDIES

The Institute for Mission Studies aims at the integration of the mission on which Christ sends His people into the entire theological enterprise. It promotes the study of this mission and preparation for it across the curriculum, across the campus, and across the globe. Through four mission professors, one in each of the four disciplines of theological learning, through Students in Mission, and through a variety of activities, the Institute seeks to cultivate skills in cross-cultural communication of the Gospel. It does so by means of both curricular and extracurricular activities on campus and by means of a variety of off-campus activities. These include an annual student-administered MissionFest, special workshops and guest lectures, an annual visit from a missionary-in-residence, cross-cultural field education experiences in North America and elsewhere, and exchange programs with sister seminaries in Brazil, England, Germany, and Korea. Through the Institute, the Seminary provides a special program of orientation and support for international students, arranging student sponsors for students from outside the U.S., organizing activities that help familiarize them with church and society in America, and making assistance of various kinds available for them. Working with LCMS World Mission, the Institute sends professors and students to mission situations and Lutheran churches in North America and around the world to gain and share insights into the mission of the church and to give witness to God’s love in Jesus Christ. In addition to preparing all students for Christ’s mission, the Institute provides special learning opportunities, for example, through participation in the January Study Week program of the Overseas Ministries Study Center in New Haven, Conn., as well as through special seminary study programs throughout the world. In cooperation with LCMS World Mission, the Institute oversees the Seminary’s Missionary Formation Program (see page 19), a specialized course of preparation for those seeking service in church planting and cross-cultural ministry.

CENTER FOR HISPANIC STUDIES (CHS)

Hispanics comprise the largest non-Anglo ethnic group in the nation and the fastest-growing of all ethnic groups in the U.S. By the year 2050, one of every four North Americans will be Hispanic. Concordia Seminary’s Center for Hispanic Studies (CHS) seeks to be the premier resource in The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod (LCMS) for ongoing reflection on Hispanic/Latino theology, missions, and related areas.

A goal of CHS is to foster the theological formation of church leaders and scholars who can constructively articulate, teach, proclaim, and model Christ-centered values and ideas that are intelligible to our ever growing and diverse Latino communities. To advance this goal, the Center, in addition to its ministerial formation programs, promotes ongoing research and writing projects that lead to various forms of publication in Spanish and/or English. The Center’s faculty and staff regularly participate in ecclesial and scholarly engagements in Latin American countries and U.S. Latino contexts.

The Center holds a growing Special Collections Library with the kind of resources needed to shape and equip students and leaders in the LCMS with the kind of critical knowledge, theological aptitude, and missionary outlook that will promote an ongoing interest in and serious commitment to missions among and with Latinos. The Center’s faculty and staff are available by appointment to Seminary students, church workers, and scholars for research assistance and consultation. Through its association with the prestigious Hispanic Summer Program, CHS provides Seminary students the opportunity to attend lectures and take electives in English and/or Spanish off-campus given by scholars from the Hispanic/Latino world.
CHS also sponsors the Annual Lecture in Hispanic/Latino Theology and Missions, which brings to campus some of the best emergent and seasoned scholars in the Latin American and U.S. Latino world. It organizes worship services in Spanish in the Seminary’s undercroft Chapel. The Center offers on-campus workshops and theological consultations in Spanish or English for Latino workers and the church at large, as well as movie nights and En Conjunto (Together) table talks where faculty and/or guest practitioners facilitate discussion from a Lutheran perspective on critical cultural and missiological issues in Hispanic theology and missions.

CONCORDIA ARCHAEOLOGICAL SOCIETY

The Concordia Archaeological Society is sponsored by Concordia Seminary, with support from the Klinck Biblical and Archaeological Museum Endowment Fund. Institutional memberships are held by universities and seminaries associated with The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod and Lutheran Church—Canada (LCC). The society seeks to promote interest and coordinate projects in Biblical archaeology, especially within the LCMS and LCC. Its work includes a newsletter, lectureships, and support for participation in field archaeology. It maintains the Klinck Biblical and Archaeological Exhibit, as well as other museum artifacts.

CONCORDIA HISTORICAL INSTITUTE

Concordia Historical Institute (CHI) is the Department of Archives and History of The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod. Its collections are devoted to American Lutheran history, with a particular emphasis on the Missouri Synod. The synodical and seminary archives, research facilities, special exhibit galleries, and administrative offices are located at 804 Seminary Place on the seminary campus. CHI’s museum of Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod history is located in the synod’s headquarters at 1333 S. Kirkwood Rd. in Kirkwood.

The Missouri Synod provided for a synodical archives at its founding in 1847. CHI was established as a membership corporation in 1927. In 1928 the Concordia Historical Institute Quarterly was founded as the only journal devoted to American Lutheran history. A subscription to the Quarterly, the newsletter Historical Footnotes, and reduced research fees are the primary benefits of CHI membership. Student memberships are available at $17.50 per year. The daily research fee is waived for CHI members and for students with a valid ID. The Institute’s research facilities and special exhibit galleries at 804 Seminary Place are open to the public Monday through Friday, from 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. The Institute’s museum of LCMS history at the Synod headquarters in Kirkwood is open to the public Monday through Friday, from 8:15 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.
EXPENSES
The Board of Regents requires all student fees to be paid in full before the first day of classes each academic quarter. The right to attend classes may be withheld from students who have not paid their fees in full. Special arrangements for payment of fees may be made with the Accounting Office when loans or other forms of financial aid are pending. If fees are deferred, any financial aid received by the institution will be credited against the student’s outstanding debts first, and any remaining proceeds will be delivered to the student. Authorization to register for subsequent quarters, eligibility for a vicarage assignment, the granting of a diploma, or certification may be withheld from students who do not adhere to the special payment plan arranged with the Accounting Office.

FINANCIAL AID
Concordia Seminary administers a variety of financial aid programs in support of its students’ education goals. It is the Seminary’s goal that a lack of sufficient financial resources should not, by itself, prevent qualified students from pursuing formation for entering pastoral or diaconal ministry, or advanced study in theology and ministry.

FINANCIAL AID SOURCES

Institutional Grants
Direct institutional grants are funded by donor gifts and investment income. The Seminary and its students enjoy the good will and generosity of many people, who believe in the Seminary’s mission and work.

Private Scholarships
The Seminary supports student applications to several independent foundations which support ministerial and theological education through the distribution of grants and scholarships.

Employment
When students are gainfully employed, there is a positive effect on their morale and attitude. On-campus employment is available through the federally-sponsored Work/Study program and in a limited number of institutional student employment opportunities. Applications for campus employment are available from the office of human resources.

In order to ensure that students devote sufficient time to their primary vocation as students, campus employment is limited to 20 hours per week, except in unusual circumstances.

Education Loans
After other sources of education funding are arranged, a student may still have unmet need. Concordia Seminary is a participant in the Federal Perkins and Direct Stafford (subsidized and unsubsidized) loan programs. The office of financial aid is authorized to determine eligibility and to authorize disbursement of such loans. Application forms are available from the office of financial aid.

Veterans Benefits and Vocational Rehabilitation
Veterans who are entitled to education benefits as a result of military service should notify the office of financial aid before enrolling for classes.

The office of financial aid will file VA Form 22-1999, in accordance with current regulations, to verify a qualified student’s enrollment in the Seminary. Other questions about veterans’ benefits should be directed to the Veterans Administration Regional Office, 400 South 18th Street, St. Louis, Missouri 63103 (phone: 888-442-4551).

Persons who are eligible for benefits under other programs, such as vocational rehabilitation, should notify the office of financial aid before enrolling in classes, so that such benefits can be considered along with other forms of assistance for which the student might be eligible.

NOTE: The total of veterans tuition benefits and Seminary tuition grants may not exceed the cost of tuition. Seminary grants will be adjusted accordingly.

MINISTERIAL FORMATION FINANCIAL AID – RESIDENTIAL STUDENTS

Eligibility
All full-time LCMS students in residential ministerial formation programs (M.Div., Certificate, and M.Deac.) who are making satisfactory academic progress are eligible to apply. In addition, all Colloquy candidates whom the Synodical Colloquy Committee has directed to complete specific academic requirements in residence are also eligible to apply for institutional grants.

Application
All eligible students must annually prepare and submit a Concordia Seminary institutional financial aid application and a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Both forms are available online.

NOTE: The deadline for submitting all application materials is March 31. Late submissions of applications are subject to reductions in the amounts of financial aid awarded.
All eligible students must also apply annually for financial aid from their home LCMS district and from their home congregation. District application forms are available online.

NOTE: District financial aid deadlines vary by district. In order for the office of financial aid to process and forward district applications, students must submit district applications through the office of financial aid two weeks prior to the district deadline or March 31, whichever is earlier.

Need Analysis and Family Contribution
A student’s timely submission of the applications identified in the preceding section is crucial to the analysis and determination of need. Two to four weeks after submitting the FAFSA form, a student will receive a Student Aid Report (SAR), which the office of financial aid also receives. The SAR provides data which the office of financial aid uses to complete district applications and to determine the student’s Expected Family Contribution (EFC) and remaining (unmet) need.

Financial Planning
Students should prepare a personal financial plan with realistic estimates of income and expenses. The office of financial aid prepares basic estimates of expenses, and can refer students to resources for personal financial planning.

Structure of Institutional Grants
Institutional grants include the following components (and projected percentages of tuition charged): Residential Programs Grants (guaranteed); Adopt-A-Student Grants; Priority Endowment Scholarships; and Merit & Presidential Scholarships—these last three components are not guaranteed. Students should consult the office of financial aid for clarifications of their specific awards.

Acknowledging Financial Support
Tuition grants for residential ministerial formation students are made possible only through the generosity of individuals, organizations, congregations, and districts who make financial contributions to Concordia Seminary’s financial aid programs. Personal letters of appreciation from students affirm to donors that their gifts are needed and appreciated. Concordia Seminary requires recipients of financial aid supplied by named endowments and the Adopt-A-Student program to write monthly to the donors who are supplying their tuition grants. Students who fail to acknowledge these grants in a timely manner may forfeit any Seminary-administered grants until the responsibility has been met.

MINISTERIAL FORMATION FINANCIAL AID – DISTANCE PROGRAMS
The enrollment status of all distance program students of Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, is part-time (less than half-time).

None of the distance programs of ministerial formation (CHS, DELTO, DIT, EIIT, and SMP) conducted by Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, has been presented for accreditation, or for certification for Title IV eligibility. Therefore, enrollment in these programs does not make students eligible for federal financial aid programs, including loans, nor does it enable students with existing education loans to request deferment.

Students in these programs may be eligible, however, for financial aid administered by LCMS districts, auxiliaries, and Recognized Service Organizations (RSOs), in addition to their home congregations. District applications are available online.

NOTE: District financial aid deadlines vary by district. In order for the office of financial aid to process and forward district applications, students must submit district applications through the office of financial aid two weeks prior to the district deadline or March 31, 2012, whichever is earlier.

ADVANCED STUDIES FINANCIAL AID
Eligibility
All full-time students in advanced studies programs (M.A., S.T.M., and Ph.D.) who are making satisfactory academic progress are eligible to apply. All students in the D.Min. program who are making satisfactory academic progress are eligible to apply.

Application
All eligible students must annually prepare and submit a Concordia Seminary institutional financial aid application and a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Both forms are available online.

NOTE: The deadline for submitting all application materials is March 1. Late submissions of applications are subject to reductions in the amounts of financial aid awarded.

Financial Planning
Students should prepare a personal financial plan with realistic estimates of income and expenses. The office of financial aid prepares basic estimates of expenses, and can refer students to resources for personal financial planning.

E109 2 hours
Seminar in Biblical Theology (Prerequisite: vicarage) The course will introduce the students to the methodological issues of “biblical theology.” The course will focus on the distinctive idioms and emphases of the various parts of the Scriptures (e.g., historical narratives, prophecy, prayer, wisdom Synoptics, Johannine, Pauline) and on the broader themes (e.g., justification, kingdom of God, covenant, Zion, Messiah), especially as they demonstrate the unity of the entire biblical canon. Special attention will be given to the relationship between the two testaments and to the understanding of sound exegetical method as a basis for theological conclusions and applications.

GENERAL ELECTIVES
(letter prefix: E)

E470 3 hours
Biblical Theology of Mission (Prerequisites: P160, E102) This course will study Holy Scripture from a missiological perspective. A survey of both Old and New Testaments will be combined with an intensive study of selected pericopes in the original languages, with a view to understanding how fundamental, pervasive, and rich the mission outreach of God is throughout Scripture.

E474 Up to 6 hours
Archaeological Practicum Concordia Seminary offers up to six hours of credit or transfer credit (towards free electives) for participation in approved archaeological excavations in Bible Lands that are accompanied by appropriate academic instruction and discipline. Regular programs are offered by Jerusalem University College and the American Schools of Oriental Research, in which the Seminary maintains memberships, and others are frequently available.

E476 3 hours
Biblical Archaeology The contribution of Near Eastern archaeology to the understanding of the biblical world. Exegesis of relevant biblical texts that are given an increased understanding by extrabiblical research. Attention to the appropriate purposes, methods, and limits of nondocumentary archaeological evidence in interpreting the Bible.

E700 3 hours
Art of Interpretation This course is devoted to an investigation into the art of interpreting the canonical text of Scripture (Old and New Testaments) in light of historical precedents and developments with a view to setting forth an adequate methodology for persons training to become pastors and teachers in the church today.

E800 3 hours
Problems in Hermeneutics An investigation of such basic hermeneutical issues as: the translator as interpreter, the canon as a hermeneutical problem, inspiration and allegory, tradition as interpreter, “what it meant and what it means,” “The New Hermeneutic.”
E801 Major Figures in Hermeneutics (Prerequisite: E800 or permission of the instructor) An in-depth study of the interpretive theories of theologians and critics who are/have been engaged in hermeneutical inquiry, especially those whose work is of contemporary significance for the interpretation of both text and life. Figures considered will change as appropriate.

EO401X Hebrew Bible Lectionary Readings (Prerequisite: EO101) This course uses selections from the current lectionary as the basis for practice in the intermediate “art of translation.” The purpose of the course is to help advance the student’s current ability with the Hebrew of the Old Testament, and to establish a lifelong habit of learning and use of the Hebrew of the Old Testament (M.Div. credit earned only with a combination of 3 lectionary readings. Maximum of six credits/2 combinations).

EO404 Rapid Reading of the Old Testament Reading of as much as possible of representative portions of the Old Testament, especially prose passages with theological significance. Development of both linguistic and theological facility toward independent handling of texts.

EO470 Old Testament Paradigms for Mission A study of the Scriptures from the perspective of mission, including an overview of the life of Israel as God’s agent of salvation; special note of Israel’s interaction with non-Israelites and their gods; study of refocused and renewed impetus on salvation for all nations in the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ; detailed study of selected pericopes that reflect God’s universal mission; implications for contemporary mission and ministry.

EO472 Old Testament Theology The course will examine the nature of the discipline known as “Old Testament Theology,” its history, methods, and leading scholars. By working through selected Hebrew texts of special theological significance, students will develop their skill at describing Old Testament theology, interpreting theological themes in their Old Testament context, and relating them to New Testament theology.

EO473 Millennialism and Prophecy Hermeneutical and exegetical investigation of a major issue dividing Lutherans and many other conservatives. Concentration especially upon the land prophecies and other portions of the Old Testament upon which the chiliastic misinterpretations are usually based.

EO480 Biblical Aramaic Inductive introduction to this “cousin” of biblical Hebrew on the basis of sections in Ezra and Daniel written in it.

EO481 Ugaritic (Prerequisite: EO480) Elements of the Ugaritic language and reading of as many of the Ras Shamra texts as possible. Special accent on the light shed by the subject on biblical philology and background.
EO499 3 hours
Independent Study Elective  (Prerequisite: vicarage) Independent study program in the area of the student’s choice, based on a prospectus established in consultation with the instructor. An independent study elective offers an opportunity to explore an area of special interest that is outside the usual scope of a regular course or to conduct a deeper investigation of a topic that is contained in a regular course. Qualified students may take only one independent study elective for credit toward the M.Div. degree. Prospectus forms are available in the Registrar’s Office.

EO707 3 hours
Introduction to the Old Testament  The course offers a survey of the history of Israel and an analysis of each book of the Old Testament in the light of this background. Stress is on theology, applicability, structure, form, and general content.

EO795 3 hours
Research Project  Independent study project for M.A. students, supervised by a selected instructor on the basis of a prospectus prepared by the student. Prospectus forms are available from the Graduate School.

EO796 6 hours
Master of Arts Thesis  Registration in this course entitles the student to the services of a thesis committee to direct thesis research and writing, and to thesis credit. Registration is valid for one calendar year.

EO801 3 hours
Major Figures in OT Interpretation  (Prerequisite: Instructor Approval) This course will study exegesis of a major contemporary OT interpreter. It is planned that the scholar in focus will make a personal appearance for a number of sessions to interact with the members of the class, in order to foster the development of their own exegetical method and expertise.

EO804 3 hours
Advanced Reading of the Old Testament  A rapid reading of major portions of the Hebrew Old Testament, emphasizing problems of text, language, and grammar.

EO895 3 hours
Research Project  Independent study project for graduate students under the supervision of a selected instructor on the basis of a student-prepared prospectus. Prospectus forms are available from the Graduate School.

EO896 9 hours
Master of Sacred Theology  Thesis Registration in this course entitles the student to the services of a thesis committee to direct thesis research and writing, and to thesis credit. Registration is valid for one calendar year.

EO897 0 hours
Doctoral Dissertation  Registration in this course entitles the student to the services of a dissertation committee to direct dissertation research and writing, and to dissertation credit. Registration is valid for one calendar year.

EO899 3 hours
Extensive Readings  Extensive readings in an area not normally offered in other courses, on the basis of a selected bibliography prepared by the department. Final paper to summarize the various interpretations or to make coherent patterns of readings. Final examination to evaluate breadth of reading and insights gained. Prospectus forms are available from the Graduate School.
NEW TESTAMENT ELECTIVES
(letter prefix: EN)

Electives that deal with the exegesis of specific biblical books or passages are listed after all other electives.

EN401X 1 hour
Greek Bible Lectionary Readings (Prerequisite: EN101) This course uses selections from the current lectionary as the basis for practice in the intermediate “art of translation.” The purpose of the course is to help advance the student’s current ability with the Greek of the New Testament, and to establish a lifelong habit of learning and use of the Greek of the New Testament (M.Div. credit earned only with a combination of six credits/2 combinations).

EN404 3 hours
Cursory Reading of the New Testament A rapid reading of major portions of the Greek New Testament, with special emphasis on problems of text, language, and grammar. Some readings from Greek literature contemporary with the New Testament may also be featured.

EN408 3 hours
Issues in NT Textual Criticism (Prerequisites: E102, one core NT course) Focused, detailed study of current issues and problems in textual criticism of the New Testament, building upon the introductory material in E102. Focus will be on the transmission of the text, the use and evaluation of critical editions, discussion of the “Canons of Criticism,” the praxis of textual criticism in the analysis of key passages, and the relationship of textual criticism to a theological understanding of the nature of Scripture.

EN463 3 hours
Life and Thought of St. Paul (Prerequisite: EN107) A course designed to gain a firsthand knowledge of Paul and his work. Primary sources and readings in this area of Pauline studies. Review of the chief theological emphases of his individual letters.

EN481 3 hours
Apostolic Fathers This course will acquaint the student with important writings from the period immediately following the apostolic era, viz., the early second century. Focus will be on the letters of Ignatius, the Didache (Teaching of the 12 Apostles), and the Shepherd of Hermas. Students will see strong signs of both continuity and discontinuity between these early works and the NT. Except for overview and introductory purposes, the texts will be considered in Greek.

EN499 3 hours
Independent Study Elective (Prerequisite: vicarage) Independent study program in the area of the student’s choice based on a prospectus established in consultation with the instructor. An independent study elective offers an opportunity to explore an area of special interest that is outside the usual scope of a regular course or to conduct a deeper investigation of a topic that is contained in a regular course. Qualified students may take only one independent study elective for credit toward the M.Div. degree. Prospectus forms are available in the Registrar’s Office.

EN709 3 hours
Theology in the New Testament (Prerequisite: E700) This course considers how the New Testament documents present and elaborate classical Christian theological themes. Students study texts throughout the New Testament corpus to observe how key doctrines of the faith, from creation and fall to salvation and eschatology, are woven throughout the corpus, which illustrates the importance of these doctrines to the church’s faith and witness, then and now.

EN795 3 hours
Research Project Independent study project for M.A. students supervised by a selected instructor on the basis of a prospectus prepared by the student. Prospectus forms are available from the Graduate School.
EN796  Master of Arts Thesis  6 hours
Registration in this course entitles the student to the services of a thesis committee to direct thesis research and writing, and to thesis credit. Registration is valid for one calendar year.

EN801  Major Figures in NT Interpretation  3 hours
(Pre-requisite: Instructor Approval) This course will study exegesis of a major contemporary NT interpreter. It is planned that the scholar in focus will make a personal appearance for a number of sessions to interact with the members of the class, in order to foster the development of their own exegetical method and expertise.

EN804  Advanced Reading of the New Testament  3 hours
A rapid reading of major portions of the Greek New Testament, with special emphasis on problems of text, language, and grammar. Some readings from Greek literature contemporary with the New Testament also may be featured.

EN844  The Christology of the Book of Revelation  3 hours
A comprehensive study of the Christology of Revelation and, in connection with the New Testament, an appreciation of the exalted role of the glorified Christ in the life of the church and in eschatology.

EN853  Studies in the Life of St. Paul  3 hours
This is a seminar designed to gain a firsthand understanding of Paul's life, work, and thought. It comprises a study of the primary sources (Paul’s epistles), the Book of Acts, and readings in the field of present-day Pauline studies. It includes a review of the chief theological emphases of individual apostolic letters.

EN865  Studies in Christology  3 hours
This course will examine the various dimensions of biblical Christology, including recent debates over the historical Jesus and the relation between biblical Christology and the Christological formulations of the early church.

EN880  Introduction to the Septuagint  3 hours
A study of the Greek Old Testament and its importance in the exegesis of the Old and New Testaments. Special attention is given to the text and to the role that the LXX plays in the linguistic and theological background of the New Testament.

EN895  Research Project  3 hours
Independent study project for graduate students under the supervision of a selected instructor on the basis of a student-prepared prospectus. Prospectus forms are available from the Graduate School.

EN896  Master of Sacred Theology  9 hours
Thesis Registration in this course entitles the student to the services of a thesis committee to direct thesis research and writing, and to thesis credit. Registration is valid for one calendar year.

EN897  Doctoral Dissertation  0 hours
Registration in this course entitles the student to the services of a dissertation committee to direct dissertation research and writing, and to dissertation credit. Registration is valid for one calendar year.

EN899  Extensive Readings  3 hours
Extensive readings in an area not normally offered in other courses, on the basis of a selected bibliography prepared by the department. Final paper to summarize the various interpretations or to make coherent pattern of readings. Final examination to evaluate breadth of reading and insights gained. Prospectus forms are available from the Graduate School.
Electives—Specific Books/Passages

The following courses consist of detailed exegesis of the original text, in whole or in part, including discussion of textual criticism, historical context, and literary features. Special attention is given to the review and application of hermeneutical principles, including the determination of authorial intent, the study of the relationship between the testaments, and the review of how the Spirit through Word and Sacrament makes the Biblical message, in its context, relevant to ecclesiastical and individual needs today. Courses are offered according to interest and need. Prerequisites are indicated in parentheses. Although requirements will differ, the same title will be used for a 700- or 800-level course with the same final two digits as a course listed below.

Pastoral Ministry An introduction to pastoral ministry. Defines the Office of the Public Ministry and explores selected areas of pastoral relationships, pastoral practice, and the cultural dimensions of pastoral ministry. Initiates the student into experiences carried out under the supervision of the director of resident field education.

P102 4 hours
Pastoral Theology (Prerequisite: vicarage or equivalent) The theology and practice of the church in her Word and Sacrament ministry, with biblical and confessional principles identified and applied for evangelical pastoral practice. A variety of pastoral care areas are considered to demonstrate the ministry of addressing and administering Word and sacraments to God’s people, individually and corporately, in their human situation. Lectures, written projects, case studies, and discussions form the core of the course, along with pertinent readings in each area.

P103 3 hours
Pastor as Counselor to Individuals and Families Theoretical and practical consideration of counseling foundations, techniques, and practices as these pertain to parish and institutional ministries, with a view toward developing a personal methodological approach to pastoral counseling for individuals and families that integrates the Law/Gospel principle.

P120 3 hours
Pastor as Educator (Prerequisite: II-year status) An examination of the role of the pastor as a teacher and administrator of educational programs in Lutheran parishes together with a study of major learning theories and teaching methods as these relate to the practice of education in the church. Provision is made for student teaching experience in local Christian day schools under the supervision of experienced Lutheran teachers.

P130 3 hours
Homiletics I (Prerequisites: three hours of college speech or equivalent, E102) Preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ as a function of Christian witness, a phase of the pastor’s calling, and an element of the congregation’s worship. Preaching from a text. Lectures, regular written assignments. Several complete sermons. Study of communication theory and development of oral communication skills, with special reference to effective proclamation of the full counsel of God (Law and Gospel). Laboratory preaching experience is videotaped for critical evaluation by instructor, students, and speaker.

P131 3 hours
Homiletics II (Prerequisite: P130) Purpose, function, and structure of a sermon. Textual preaching, especially on parables, miracles, Old Testament texts, as well as texts for occasional sermons. The sermon as part of the liturgy and of worship. The polarity of Law and Gospel in all preaching. Sermon theory and delivery.

P140 3 hours
Worship The components of corporate worship in the Lutheran church, biblical guidelines for Christian worship, the church’s liturgy and hymns, ceremony and art in worship, the church year, and laboratory practice in the conduct of services.
Theology of Missions

The course is designed to study the biblical, theological, and historical bases of Christian mission and to examine pertinent missiological issues and their implications for today.

Pastoral Leadership

(Prerequisite: vicarage or equivalent) The pastor as leader, shepherd under Christ, servant of God’s people. Attention is given to biblical models of pastoral leadership and to vision for the local church within a framework of New Testament priorities for the congregation’s mission and ministry. Leadership and management principles are applied to proactive pastoral leadership of laity and church staff. Guidance is given to help the candidate meet the challenge of pastoral leadership in the Lutheran congregation at the turn of the century.

Pastoral Leadership

Foundations of Deaconess Ministry

This course will introduce the student to the history of the deaconess ministry and office as well as its contemporary purpose and work in the life of the church’s ministry and mission.

Spiritual Care of Women

This course will provide training in basic skills in caregiving, with special emphasis on issues women would be likely to face, such as abuse, miscarriage, abortion, divorce, depression, and guilt.

Clinical Pastoral Education

An organized teaching-learning program for theological students and/or pastors in a clinical setting such as a hospital or correctional institution for an entire quarter. Opportunity under guidance and supervision to gain firsthand experience in dealing directly with people and their problems by observation and participation. (Special arrangements for this program must be made with the CPE advisor and the registrar.)

Pro Musica Sacra

(Prerequisite: consent of the instructor) The study in rehearsal of sacred choral music from various periods and the performance of this music in worship services and concerts as a member of Pro Musica Sacra. (Credit is given in the Spring Quarter for yearlong participation. No tuition charge. Credit applicable to the M.Div. program: 1 hour per year; combined maximum of 3 hours for P348 and P349.)

POST-VICARAGE HOMILETICS ELECTIVE

A two-hour homiletics elective must be included in the course of studies. This course is taken following the vicarage. Any of the following courses satisfies the requirement: P430, P431, P4301, P432, P434, P435, P436, P437, P438, P439.

ELECTIVES

Clinical Pastoral Education

Pro Musica Sacra
P349
Seminary Chorus (Prerequisite: consent of the instructor) The study in rehearsal of sacred choral music from various periods and the performance of this music in worship services and concerts as a member of the Seminary Chorus. (Credit is given in the Spring Quarter for yearlong participation. No tuition charge. Credit applicable to the M.Div. program: 1 hour per year; combined maximum of 3 hours for P348 and P349.)

P405
Crisis Intervention (Prerequisite: P103 or permission of the instructor) The social concept of crisis and how to intervene with Christian concern and involvement. The nature of crises with attendant symptoms, development, and effects. The function of pastoral counseling as it relates directly to crises in initial impact with possible referrals to other professionals.

P407
Special Issues in Pastoral Counseling (Prerequisite: P103) This course is designed to equip pastors to deal with commonly met counseling issues requiring specific skills. The role of Christ as the foundation for all healing is emphasized.

P408
Solution-Focused Pastoral Counseling (Prerequisite: P103) Solution-oriented brief therapy is a radically different approach to solving human difficulties. It focuses on clients’ strengths, recognizing that God the Holy Spirit was there and is currently working with our members as baptized people of God. This course will explain the background to solution-oriented therapy and how this can be an extremely effective tool for pastors. Counseling need not be long term to produce dramatic results. Pastors, apart from therapists, are well-equipped to help the counselees discover the solution to their problems and put it in motion speedily and productively.

P409
Marriage and Family Pastoral Care and Counseling (Prerequisite: P103 or equivalent) This course will examine the nature of marital and family strengths, developmental tasks, struggles, and dysfunctions in light of the role and function of Lutheran pastoral care and counseling. Family Life Cycle Theory, Family Assets and Strengths, Pre-Marital and Pre-Baptism opportunities and Ritual will be explored. Marriage and Family Pastoral care and counseling skills will be explored and practiced. The role and opportunities of the pastor, deaconess, and congregation in supporting couples and families and in counseling them as Lutheran counselors will be identified and discussed.

P413
Faith, Health, and Pastoral Care An examination of the research and theory of the relationship of faith and health. Principal attention will be given to the mindbody-spirit and the faith-health interface arenas. Principles of a holistic understanding of the human being and of healthy communities will be used to explore health ministries activities and attitudes as a legitimate function of pastoral care and the care of the Christian community. A Lutheran understanding of the mind-body-spirit unity will be explored, with attention given to Biblical, confessional, and classic Lutheran pastoral care sources. Contrasts also will be drawn between the contemporary understanding of spirituality and health perspectives and those perspectives that emerge from a Lutheran revelational theology as important components of genuine pastoral care.

P417
Ethics of Pastoral Ministry This course provides a foundation for response to the questions that the pastoral ministry faces when values, Scriptural exhortations, and personal perceptions collide. Emphasizing grace and forgiveness, this course attempts to prepare today’s pastor to minister evangelically in the world where precepts of the Law set the agenda. Readings, case studies, personal reflections, and active discussion will assist the student to discover the basis for ethical ministry under Christ.
P419 Team Ministry This course explores scriptural principles and sociological dynamics for effective team ministry. After reviewing the theological understanding of the office of the public ministry, steps will be taken to understand, analyze, and develop successful models and approaches to team ministry, including multi-staff relationships. Special attention is given to the role of the associate or assistant pastor.

P423 Confirmation in the Lutheran Church (Prerequisite: P120) A study of the theology and practice of confirmation with particular reference to the practical aspects of a confirmation ministry in a Lutheran parish.

P424 Youth Ministry An in-depth study of the meanings and realities of the generation gap. Examination of changing attitudes towards sexual awareness, leading to a changing self-perception and differences in the definition of adulthood. Communication relationships between adults and youth.

P430 Creative Homiletics (Prerequisite: vicarage or equivalent) This course aims to help the student recognize the creative possibilities in the mastery of the basic principles of sermon construction and delivery; to become familiar with the variety of ways (both literal and metaphorical) in which the Scriptures present the Gospel; to acquire new skills in relating that Gospel to the preaching of justification and sanctification; and to explore new approaches (multiple texts, role playing, dialogues, literary genres, etc.) in biblical preaching. The critiquing of sermonic exhibits and homiletics texts may be included in the course.

P4301 Art as a Homiletical Resource (Prerequisite: vicarage) Works of art from various periods and traditions are examined and analyzed in order to determine and exploit their potential primarily for homiletical, but also for didactic, purposes. Class members will have a collection of materials for practical parish use at the close of the course.

P431 Problems in Preaching (Prerequisite: vicarage or equivalent) Discussion of some key problems in preaching: relating the Gospel meaningfully to life, transposing the text to the present situation, defining and confining the central idea, making abstractions concrete. Class criticism of videotaped sermons.

P432 Law/Gospel Polarity in Preaching (Prerequisite: vicarage or equivalent) The centrality of the distinction between Law and Gospel for the preaching task; emphasis on the theological content of the sermon; liturgical preaching; use of pericopic systems; the occasional sermon; midweek series.
P434 2 hours
Preaching in the Postmodern World (Prerequisite: vicarage or equivalent) This course will critically evaluate some of the trends in postmodernism as they affect American culture and individual Christians. It will apply Law and Gospel to those trends toward the goal of preaching more effectively to Christian hearers in the 21st century.

P435 2 hours
Expository Preaching (Prerequisite: vicarage) This course familiarizes students with the characteristics and practice of expository preaching. Students will examine the biblical and theological support for expository preaching, learn how it can be utilized in a Lutheran setting and become familiar with some of its leading practitioners. Special emphasis will be placed upon the process of moving from text to the construction and delivery of an expository sermon.

P436 2 hours
Preaching Old Testament Lessons (Prerequisite: vicarage or equivalent) This course encourages the student to preach from the Old Testament faithfully and with confidence. Through the careful examination of representative texts, class discussion, guided readings, and written assignments, this course will increase the student’s familiarity with the relationship between the Old Testament and New Testament and illustrate the relevance and value of preaching on Old Testament texts for today’s church.

P437 2 hours
Sermon Structures (Prerequisite: vicarage or equivalent) This course will examine the form and function of selected sermon structures. Structures that emphasize the exposition of a central thought (propositional), the structure of the text (textual-sequential), and the experience of the hearer (dynamic) will be studied in theory and practice.

P438 2 hours
Proclamation: Content, Style, Delivery (Prerequisite: vicarage or equivalent) A study of the preaching task as proclamation with special attention to the content of the proclamation, the clothing of the message in language that communicates to the hearer, and the presentation in a fashion that engages the hearer. Selected texts from the three-year lectionary of Lutheran Worship will be employed. Special attention to delivery with peer group and instructor critique. (Class limit: 10 students) (By invitation only)

P440 3 hours
Theology of Worship (Prerequisite: P140) Intensive study of the theological foundations for corporate worship. Theological analysis of selected historical and contemporary worship forms and practices. Examination of the theological content of hymns. Discussion of the role of music in the service of theology.

P442 3 hours
Worship for 21st Century Congregations Examines issues that impact worship in today’s congregations, including influences of postmodernism, technology, ecumenical context, ethnic diversity, generational differences, and missional thrust. Develops insights, strategies, and practices that grow from a Lutheran theology. Student projects illustrate possible responses.

P445 3 hours
Service Planning (Prerequisite: vicarage) An advanced study in the planning and conduct of corporate services of worship. Attention is given to biblical principles relating to Christian worship, to Luther’s liturgical writings, to the structure of selected Lutheran worship orders, and to the relationship of the sermon to hymns and other liturgical propers. Current issues in worship are discussed when the course content relates to such issues.
P446 Emerging Christianity in a Postmodern Age 3 hours
This course will explore the impact of post-modernity on emerging forms of Christian expression in ecclesial life and worship. The course provides a critical analysis of the cultural and theological tenets of emerging Christianity. The course will serve as a lab for assessing Lutheran adaptations of emerging church practices as a form of mission in a postmodern age.

P447 Classics of the Devotional Life 3 hours
A survey and theological analysis of selected devotional classics. Development of skill in using these writings for personal devotions and pastoral ministrations is the major objective of the course.

P448 The Gospel in C.S. Lewis' Novels 3 hours
A selection of C.S. Lewis' novels will be read with an emphasis on identifying their implicit Gospel elements for the purpose of: (1) comparing such implicit Gospel elements with explicit Gospel statements in Lewis' theological works; (2) gaining new perspectives on the Christian Gospel; (3) learning creative ways to communicate the Christian Gospel; and (4) evaluating Lewis' understanding of the Gospel in the light of biblical descriptions of the Gospel.

P453 Urban Ministries 3 hours
This course is about bringing the Gospel of Christ to the cities, with a special focus on mission to African Americans. It teaches ways and means of reaching ethnic populations in major urban communities. It includes identification of a variety of ministries for sharing the Gospel and assimilating urban people into the Christian fellowship.

P454 Ethnic Ministries of the Church in North America 3 hours
An examination of the opportunities and challenges connected with the church's mission to ethnic people in the United States and Canada.

P458 Christianity in Latin American and U.S. Latino Contexts 3 hours
A survey of Christianity in Latin American and U.S. Latino contexts from a historical, theological, and missiological perspective. Topics include the impact of Spanish colonization and Roman Catholic missions in the formation of Latin American religious identity, the influence of Latin American liberation thought, the emergence of U.S. Latino theologies, the rise of Pentecostalism in Latin American and U.S. Latino contexts, and various challenges that the church [esp. Lutheran (Hispanic or other)] faces in her mission to, among, and with Latinos.

P460 Mission Practice Now (Prerequisite: P160) 3 hours
An examination of practices in use today in world missions. Firsthand presentations, audiovisuals, and student reports on the contemporary world mission situation. Possible examination of issues within a particular geographical area.

P462 Mission and Ministry Seminar (Prerequisite: P160) 3 hours
This is a seminar course that focuses theological and missiological study around specific aspects of the praxis of church planting. (By invitation only)

P467 Theology of Compassion and Care 3 hours
A consideration of the theological rationale for the church's efforts in the world toward bringing justice, caring for the poor, relieving human suffering, preserving and protecting creation. The course will have several components in which students will look at the biblical implications of the reign of God and Christ's redemptive work in light of creation and the new creation, the historical reception and development of these biblical themes (i.e. history of dogma and exegesis), the history of the church's practice and institutions, and contemporary expressions and issues in the church's works of love in the world.
P468 Pastoral Care and the Human Experience
3 hours
A survey of some basic human experiences in order to become a better reader of persons that are served in the name of Christ and ourselves. Topics of brain theory and functioning, positive human strivings, personality theory, and trauma will be discussed. Aspects of pastoral and deaconess care, such as teaching and counseling, of pastoral care such as preaching and of deaconess care such as devotional leadership, implications for team ministry and congregational relationships, as well as the utilization of the congregational community will be explored as methods by which the Gospel meets the points of human need and experience. Portions of the class are experiential.

P469 Congregational Dynamics and Behaviors
3 hours
An exploration of the fundamental dynamics of congregations as human organizations, focusing on the development of basic strategies for both understanding congregational behavior and for leading organizational creativity and change. Principles of systems theory, behavioral covenants, conflict management, and organizational analysis will be used to explore the human side of a group of people gathered in a congregation in the name of Christ. Utilization of one local congregation for organizational/historical analysis and in initial exploration of a calling congregation, if applicable, will be expected.

P471 Missionary Anthropology
3 hours
The study of anthropology helps the Christian understand the means through which God has chosen to work in order to bring humans to faith in Him. By understanding culture and its effect on communication, the missionary is better equipped to fulfill his commission to make disciples by going, preaching, and baptizing. This course will examine the integrated systems of learned patterns of behavior, ideas, and products characteristic of societies and determine how to communicate God’s Word meaningfully in different cultures.

P474 Christianity in East Asian Context
3 hours
A study of the history, mission, and contemporary state of the Christian church among the peoples of East Asia, namely China (including Hong Kong, Macau, and Taiwan), Japan, and Korea. Major emphasis is given to the Christian church in those countries, but Christian ministry among East Asian peoples in North America also will be studied.

P476 Ministry in Urban Context
3 hours
This course explores ministry in urban contexts. Taught on location, this course considers exegetical, confessional, liturgical, historical and practical implications of the mission of God in cities of the United States of America. Particular attention is given to the unique challenges and opportunities in ecclesiology and spirituality in urban centers. Congregational dynamics, leadership development, worship, religious education, social justice, demographics and other aspects of parish life in cities are studied.

P483 Literature and the Gospel
3 hours
This course deals with novels, poems, dramas, and short stories that: (1) deliberately, presumably, or inadvertently present, in varying degrees of accuracy and completeness, certain aspects of the Christian Gospel; (2) provide insight into the nature of fallen man as a basis for more effective application of the Christian Gospel to human needs; and (3) expose the student to literary plots, creative formats, and stylistic techniques that can facilitate his own communication of the Christian Gospel.

P491 Science, Ecology, and the Doctrine of Man
3 hours
(Prerequisite: S115) An investigation into the Christian doctrine of man in the light of modern technology and ecology.
P492 3 hours
Genetic Science in Christian Perspective
(Prerequisites: S116, S125) This course will examine the major bioethical issues relating to recent advances in genetic science (e.g., gene replacement theory, cloning and twinning, genetic disease identification, in vitro fertilization, freezing embryos). The theological issues which these technologies raise (e.g., original sin vs. “the gene made me do it”; creation vs. genetic evolution of man; playing God or serving God; taking care of human life vs. the patenting of life; mail-order babies or babies as blessings; homosexuality—genetics or behavior; to marry or not to marry) will be studied in light of the Scriptures and the Confessions.

P499 3 hours
Independent Study (Prerequisite: vicarage) Elective independent study program in the area of student’s choice based on a prospectus established in consultation with the instructor. An independent study elective offers an opportunity to explore an area of special interest that is outside the usual scope of a regular course or to conduct a deeper investigation of a topic that is contained in a regular course. Qualified students may take only one independent study elective for credit toward the M.Div. degree. Prospectus forms are available in the Registrar’s Office.

P795 3 hours
Research Project Independent study project for M.A. students under the supervision of a selected instructor on the basis of a student-prepared prospectus. Prospectus forms are available from the Graduate School.

P796 6 hours
Master of Arts Thesis Registration in this course entitles the student to the services of a thesis committee to direct thesis research and writing, and to thesis credit. Registration is valid for one calendar year.

P817 3 hours
Contemporary Issues in Ethics Contemporary issues such as abortion, euthanasia, marriage and procreation, genetic determinism, homosexuality, cloning, transhumanism, technosapiens as it relates to NeoDarwinism, human experimentation, and feminism will be examined in light of “the language of morals”—historical and modern ethical theories and principles. The writings of Aristotle, Plato, Socrates, Hobbes, Kant, Hume, Bentham, Rawls, Thomas Nagel, Tong, MacIntyre, Singer, Meilaender, and others will be examined to study their influence on contemporary issues. The influence of ethics on the media also will be examined.

P822 3 hours
Cultural Wars: Therapeutic vs. Theological This graduate seminar examines the rise of a “therapeutic culture” in America. Having great influence, this therapeutic ethos—with the victim pathologies of the emotivist self-interpreted for us by the priestly practitioners of the therapeutic vocations—offers itself as a replacement of traditional moral codes and symbols. The therapeutic ethos is a system of meaning that greatly impacts the church because it is a worldview, a philosophy of life or ideology, a religion. This course examines the therapeutic ethos from a distinctively Lutheran perspective and worldview. It also provides a framework for effective use of the social sciences viewed from the perspective of the Lutheran “two kingdoms” theology and as a “First Article” gift.

P841 3 hours
Liturgy and Culture A study of the Christian worship as an intersection of theology and culture. The course examines how Word and Sacrament are brought to people and how their prayers and praises are lifted up using language, movement, time, place, ritual, music, and art. Case studies explore the dimensions of liturgy among people in given times and places.
P861  3 hours
Seminar on Contemporary Missiology (Pre-requisite: P160 or equivalent) An advanced seminar on the theology of missions: its theological content, pertinent issues, its development and implications, and its connection with contemporary theology and mission movements, with a special accent on the post-World War II period.

P871  3 hours
Cultural Anthropology A graduate seminar that explores the understandings and tools of cultural anthropology and their usefulness in communicating the Christian message in mission and congregational contexts.

P879  3 hours
Christ and Culture A seminar exploring the tensions between the Christian faith and the prevailing culture in the West at the outset of the third millennium. Attention to both modern and postmodern motifs surfacing in the culture is paramount for appropriate Christian response in mission and for design of local ministry to congregations in 21st century American culture.

P880  3 hours
Seminar in Practical Theology A seminar on a selected topic or topics in the area of practical theology. Assigned readings and discussion of them, class presentations by the instructor and students, and a research paper.

P895  3 hours
Research Project Independent study project for graduate students under the supervision of a selected instructor on the basis of a student-prepared prospectus. Prospectus forms are available from the Graduate School.

P896  9 hours
Master of Sacred Theology Thesis Registration in this course entitles the student to the services of a thesis committee to direct thesis research and writing, and to thesis credit. Registration is valid for one calendar year.

P897  0 hours
Doctoral Dissertation Registration in this course entitles the student to the services of a dissertation committee to direct dissertation research and writing, and to dissertation credit. Registration is valid for two calendar years.
DOCTOR OF MINISTRY

Not all the seminars and courses that appear below will be offered in the current academic year. A complete schedule of courses for a specific Doctor of Ministry term will be published by the Doctor of Ministry office.

DM929 3 hours
Sermon Structures This seminar will examine the role of sermon structure in preaching, both in theory and in practice. Selected sermon structures will be studied theoretically in terms of their form and function in the preaching context and practically in terms of their formation by the pastor in sermon preparation and their delivery in the congregational setting.

DM933
Mark for Preaching and Teaching

DM942 6 hours
Shepherding the Growing Parish This seminar explores the pastoral practices that are useful in managing the growth that God grants to a congregation. Students will gain theological and practical resources that aid them faithfully to minister amidst the increased demands and complexities of a growing parish. Special consideration is given to the following needs: selection and support of additional staff members, implementation of an appropriate organizational structure, promotion of healthy financial stewardship, and management of change and conflict.

DM947 6 hours
Leadership and the Missio Dei This seminar will study, reflect on, and plan for execution of a Lutheran conception of the church’s mission in the life of congregations. Special attention will be given to the implications of a congregation’s understanding of the mission of God for the conduct of its entire life, that is, the implications of a biblical theology of mission for the life of a congregation, its leaders, and all its members.

DM949 6 hours
Leadership in Cross-Cultural Contexts An immersion in and critical reflection on a short-term cross-cultural experience. The student examines practices used in cross-cultural mission efforts, particularly in the context and culture that he observes during the practicum. He reflects upon this cross-cultural mission engagement and on how he might lead a congregation to carry out more effective cross-cultural mission work.

DM954 6 hours
Strategies for Evangelism The pastor’s office is reviewed from the perspective of an evangelist, with the assumption that the pastor is most effective in the various roles of his ministry when he functions as an evangelist, eager to share the Gospel and concerned about the salvation of individuals. The opportunities of being an evangelist are explored with practical suggestions provided. The pastor’s role of leading his congregation to an evangelistic attitude and equipping them with evangelism skills is reviewed.

DM965 6 hours
Techniques and Strategies for Ministers Teaching Adults Biblical, theological, and historical foundations for ministers teaching adults. Problems and needs for teaching adults in the contemporary church. A variety of techniques and strategies usable for ministers’ roles and functions in relating religious content to lay people as a teaching-learning transaction.

DM968 6 hours
Ministry in the Military Context This seminar will study and reflect upon distinctive issues and challenges of ministering in a military context. Special attention will be given to the ethical implications confronting military personnel as well as ministers serving them. The seminar will investigate how chaplains and pastors can best communicate, provide pastoral counseling and care, guide worship, and lead in a military context and culture.

DM970 3 hours
Wrap-around PLI Conference 1 A critical reflection on and supplement to the Pastoral Leadership Institute Conference Event 1: “Visionary Leadership.” Students integrate theological foundations with practical skills so that they provide visionary leadership to the congregation in a theologically faithful manner. Participants will assess biblical and Lutheran components of pastoral ministry and develop a style of leadership that coheres with these components.
DM971 3 hours
Wrap-around PLI Conference 2  A critical reflection on and supplement to the Pastoral Leadership Institute Conference Event 2: “Nurturing Transformation and Strategic Planning.” Students integrate theological foundations with practical skills so that, utilizing appropriate strategic planning methods, they facilitate beneficial transformation (change) in a congregation for the sake of Christ’s mission.

DM972 3 hours
Wrap-around PLI Conference 3  A critical reflection on and supplement to the Pastoral Leadership Institute Conference Event 3: “Organizational Teaming.” Students integrate theological foundations with practical skills so that relationships are formed for effective teamwork in the congregational context (especially multi-stage teams). Styles of team ministry, as well as dynamics for effective collaboration, are considered in light of an evangelical ethos.

DM973 3 hours
Wrap-around PLI Conference 4  A critical reflection on and supplement to the Pastoral Leadership Institute Conference Event 4: “Applied Leadership.” Students integrate theological foundations with practical skills so that they provide leadership in promoting among laypeople a healthy stewardship of resources, skills, gifts for service, and energy. Participants will assess the biblical and Lutheran theology of stewardship, as well as the privileges and responsibilities of being royal priests.

DM974 3 hours
Wrap-around PLI International Event  A critical reflection on and supplement to the Pastoral Leadership Institute International Event. The student examines practices in use in world missions, particularly in the geographical area and culture that he observed. He reflects upon his cross-cultural engagement and on how he might lead a congregation to more effective international mission work.

DM 983
1 Corinthians for the 21st Century

DM984 3 hours
Revelation and Pastoral Ministry  A study and interpretation of Revelation in view of its use and importance in Lutheran biblical theology in the parish setting. (Approved for exegetical theology credit)

DM986 3 hours
Lutherans in a Pluralistic Society  Collectively and individually, the people of God daily encounter unchristian and anti-Christian philosophies and lifestyles in the form of subtle cultural influences, as well as overt indoctrination from all sides. Many Christians are not aware of the degree to which their beliefs and daily living have been, and are being, influenced by them. The pastor’s role as shepherd is reviewed in the light of Scripture as it applies to today’s religious pluralism. The course offers Gospel-centered, practical suggestions for ministry to God’s people in society, the church, and the home (approved for Systematic Theology credit).

DM995 3 hours
Project Research and Writing  This course equips the student to do both library research and field research in preparation for writing the major applied project. The student will be acquainted with the methodology for conducting valid qualitative and quantitative research. Instruction also will focus on the design, format, and style of the project report. At the conclusion of the course, the student will have written a formal proposal for the major applied project.

DM996 6 hours
Major Applied Project  Entitles the student to the services of a project advisor to direct his major applied project and its writing, and to project credit. Registration is valid for one calendar year, after which unfinished projects require a continuation fee.
DM999 3 hours
Independent Study Elective Independent study in connection with the practice of pastoral ministry in the area of the student’s choice on a prospectus established in consultation with the instructor. With an instructor from the appropriate department, this study program may fulfill the departmental course requirement. Students may take only one independent study elective for credit toward the D.Min. degree.
