FREE CONCERT

Olivier Messiaen’s
Quartet for the End of Time

With St. Louis Symphony musicians
Erin Schreiber, violin
Alvin McCall, cello
Diana Haskell, clarinet
Patti Wolf, piano

Don’t miss this powerful work of music that was created and premiered during one of the darkest periods in modern history. Olivier Messiaen composed the Quartet for the End of Time during his internment as a French prisoner of war in Nazi Germany, and orchestrated it for the only musical instruments present at Stalag VIII-A. This program runs about 50 minutes and will be performed by St. Louis Symphony musicians at three area houses of worship. We encourage you to attend multiple performances of this concert. No tickets or reservations are required.

Sunday, January 13, 2013 at 4pm
Second Presbyterian Church
4501 Westminster Place
St. Louis, MO 63108

Tuesday, January 22, 2013 at 7pm
Chapel of St. Timothy & St. Titus
Concordia Seminary
801 Seminary Place
St. Louis, MO 63105

Monday, February 11, 2013 at 7pm
Central Reform Congregation
5020 Waterman Boulevard
St. Louis, MO 63108

St. Louis Symphony Community Partnerships presents hundreds of free events, concerts, and classes each year throughout the greater St. Louis area. For more information about upcoming events, please visit the Community and Education section of the St. Louis Symphony website, www.stlsymphony.org/cp, or call 314-286-4432.