

SEMINARY CELEBRATION

CONCORDIA SEMINARY, ST. LOUIS

In today's culture, strong pastors and church leaders are more important than ever.

At Concordia Seminary, St. Louis we empower men to fulfill God's call as parish pastors, church planters and missionaries, and women as deaconesses, to carry out ministry in the United States and around the world.

More than 12,000 servants of Christ have completed their studies from Concordia Seminary since its founding in 1839. Today more than 600 students are taught by our world-renowned faculty in the classroom, off-campus and online, with traditional and alternate routes to graduation.

As Christians we all have a role in creating a strong church for the future.

Here are ways you can help prepare leaders for ministry:

- Pray that God will bless Concordia Seminary, its students, faculty and staff.
- Encourage potential students to explore enrollment. Share the names of potential students with the admissions office at 800-822-9545 or admissions@csl.edu.
- Participate with a gift. The vast majority of the Seminary's financial support comes from direct gifts from friends like you. For questions or to make a donation, call 800-822-5287 or visit www.csl.edu/give.

Together we can identify, encourage and produce effective pastors and church workers to boldly lead the next generation of Christians.
