SUMMER WORKSHOP

De-coding the Apocalypse: Study of the Book of Revelation

WHO: Dr. David Peter
Dean of Faculty
Professor of Practical Theology
Placement Counselor

WHEN: Aug. 5-7, 2019

WHERE: St. Peter Lutheran Church
910 Amos St.
Humboldt, KS 66748

WHAT: The title of the last book of the Bible is translated as “Revelation,” but its original title was “Apocalypse.” This word literally means “the unveiling.” The purpose of this book of the Bible is to unveil the purposes of God in human history. For many people, however, it remains seemingly veiled, as an obscure, mysterious and confusing book. The reason many people do not understand the Apocalypse is because it is written in coded language that can only be interpreted by decoding its symbolism. This study will look at the most significant coded symbols of the book and the keys to their interpretation. It will provide a broad sweep of the major themes and message of Revelation, so that you can better understand this often misunderstood book of the Bible. This “unveiling” will enable you to see Christ, His church and history (past, present and future) in a whole new light.
